Forwarded to Government.

There is no audit objection to the travelling allowance being sanctioned by Government.

The proposed reappropriation is within the sanctioning powers of the Director of Public Instruction, but as the travelling allowance should be debited to the contingencies of the College of Engineering, no re-appropriation is necessary—vide paragraph 3 under article 1004 of the Madras Supplement to the Civil Service Regulations.

A. MONTAGU BRIGSTOCKE,
Accountant-General.

To the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.

Order—No. 101, Educational, dated 8th February 1908.

The Government are unable to sanction the payment of the travelling allowances claimed by Mr. Lloyd Jones for his journey to and from Madras in connection with the meeting of the Board of Examiners of the College of Engineering, Madras. Mr. Jones' remuneration qua Examiner is derived from the fees levied from the candidates, and the Government do not consider that his position as a member of the Board entitles him to draw travelling allowance for journeys of the nature referred to.

Are there any precedents for payment of allowance to Examiners of the College of Engineering? Surely Mr. Lloyd Jones as a Railway officer would have a free pass to Madras?

H. D. TAYLOR—8-1-08.

The only precedent that can be traced is G.O., No. 261 R., Educational, dated 3rd April 1902. In that order the claim for travelling allowance of Mr. S. A. Subramania Aiyar, then Executive Engineer of Tanjore, who was a member of the Board of Examiners of the College of Engineering, was admitted as a charge against the Public Works Department and was sanctioned by Government. From the Director of Public Instruction's letter on page 2 of that order, it will be observed that that officer had then considerable difficulty in arranging for a Board and promised Mr. Subramania Aiyar travelling allowance for his journey to Madras and back.

From whom?

C. A. SOUTER—23-1-08.

From the Railway Company, it submitted.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—23-1-08.

As a Railway officer, presumably he will get a free pass whether on duty or not.

H. D. TAYLOR.

2. As regards the question whether Mr. Lloyd Jones would have had a free pass to Madras as a Railway officer, it is understood that he will have a free pass from the Railway Company only when he is travelling on duty connected with Railway.

I do not think that the allowance should be granted. Mr. Lloyd Jones' remuneration qua Examiner is derived from fees and I do not think that his position as a member of that Board, which is not a purely honorary office, entitles him to travelling allowance.
