[Memorandum No. 1821-1, Educational, dated 3rd August 1907.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 28th November 1897, R.C. No. 6470.

The Director of Public Instruction submits an application from M.R.Ry. M. Subba Rao Pantulu for vesting the Bhaskara Rao prize endowment in the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments. Only one application is submitted both for vesting the endowment in the Treasurer and for settling a scheme for its administration. But according to the opinion of the Advocate-General given in the case of the Diamond Jubilee Town Hall, Berhampur, two separate applications should be made—one for vesting the property in the Treasurer and the other for settling a scheme for its administration. The present application may, therefore, be returned and the Director of Public Instruction asked to obtain and submit two applications and two draft notifications.

A draft is placed below for approval.

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 29th January 1908, No. 6470.

The number and value of the promissory notes purchased have been entered in the notification. The date on which the scheme should come into operation has been put in as 1st March 1908.

2. The draft order placed below is submitted for approval.

P.R.—5-2-08.

The scheme says nothing as to what is to happen if no competitors come forward for the prize—vide rule 5. Rule 6 says that all interest on the amount of the endowment that may not be required for the purpose of the prize shall be accumulated and that such accumulations shall from time to time be invested and added to the principal amount. Perhaps this rule by implication provides that when there are no candidates for competition, the amount of the interest should be accumulated and eventually invested. Orders are solicited whether it is necessary to provide expressly in the rules as to what is to happen if there are no competitors or whether the existing rule 6 is sufficient.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—8-2-08.

Rule 6 says that "all interest which is not required shall be allowed to accumulate." This clearly covers unutilized interest.

The D.P.I. submits an application from M.R. Pay. M. Subba Rao Pantulu for vesting the Bhaskara Rao pring endowment in the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments. Only one application is submitted both for vesting the endowment in the Treasurer and for settling a scheme for its administration. But according to the opinion of the Advocate-General given in the case of the Diamond Jubilee Town Hall, Berhampore, two ^{separate} applications should be made - one for vesting the property in the Treasurer and the other for settling a scheme for its administration. The present application may therefore be returned and the D.P.I. asked to obtain and submit two applications and two draft notifications. A draft is placed below for approval.

The Scheme says nothing as to what is to happen if no competitors come forward for the prize - vide Rule 5. Rule 6 says that all interest on the amount of the endowment that may not be required for the purpose of the prize shall be accumulated and that Such accumulations shall from time to time be invested and added to the principal amount. Perhaps ~~to~~ this rule by implication provides that when there are no candidates for Competition, the amount of the interest should be accumulated & eventually invested. Orders are solicited whether it is necessary to provide expressly in the rules as to what is to happen if there are no competitors or whether the existing Rule 6 is sufficient.
