2. These applications are made on behalf of persons employed in the districts of Salem & Trichy - both Tamil districts. It is for consideration whether there is such a dearth of passed men in these districts as to justify the grant of the concessions recommended.

3. G.O. no. 849 dt. 23.12.07 is a pre-
~~cedent~~ ^{cedent} for allowing the concession now sought in Anantapur - a Telugu district.

27.2.08. C.S.
The J-C. has not advanced very good reasons for his proposal. What needs Salem have to do with vacancies in Telugu districts is not evident unless the J-C. wants some sort of reserve.

Please see K.L.B. Op. no 297 Ed. of 26-4-6 in which a similar application was refused.

No objection need be raised in these two cases; but in future applications I think it should be distinctly stated by the J. G. whether he makes the recommendation solely in the interests of Departmental administration. Personal grounds should not be allowed.
