MADRAS

May it please your Excellency,

The humble memorialist begs respectfully to approach your exalted Excellency with this humble petition for admission into the Sub-Inspector's class at Vellore Training School.

The humble petitioner begs to state that he he had on the 3rd February 1908 the honor of an interview with Lieut. Col. R. F. R. Formby, I.A. When he had the opportunity to assert his claims to the consideration and generosity of the benign British Government, a Government ready to protect and patronise the respectable and deserving based on the respectability of my distinguished pedigree. The aforesaid generous officer, the ear and mouth, in truth of the Carnatic Family having referred to my Carnatic registers and being assured of my direct descent from Nawab Mahomedally Khan Bahadur, the Founder of the Carnatic Family was graciously pleased to forward his application to the Inspector General with his strong recommendation. Subsequently the humble memorialist received an official memorandum from the Assistant Inspector General of Police, F. Armitage Esquire, on the 11th February 1908, and on the 15th February 1908 the humble petitioner had an audience of the Assistant Inspector General of Police aforesaid, during this interview Mr. F. Armitage informed the humble petitioner that the only ground on which the application is refused is the lack on his part of a University Certificate, of having passed the Matriculation Examination. But the memorialist begs very humbly to represent that this bar (of not having passed the Matric) is not in his case quite unsurmountable - instances are not lacking of Carnatic youths, who possessing no certificate of any University General Examination have been entertained in superior Government service and have granted honorable and onerous post being exempted from the Upper Secondary Examination, and indeed this examination have been introduced especially especially to remove the impediment in the way of the young members of the Carnatic family, who owing to some unfavourable circumstances failed to secure any University diploma. Therefore the humble petitioner begs very respectfully that the same concession, which is usual to grant to so many members of ~~xxx~~ his own family i.e. Carnatic family may also be extended to him. The humble petitioner begs very respectfully to add that he is a young man of about 20 years of age possessing a very strong physic, and has also a very fair knowledge of English with a tolerably good acquaintance with Tamil, and also keeps practising in horse riding so that he is by both nature and ~~xxx~~ culture thoroughly adapted for active executive work. In conclusion the humble memorialist very respectfully prays that Your Excellency may be gracious enough to favourably consider his humble petition and to grant him an exemption from the necessary Upper Secondary Government Examination to enable him to gratify his long cherished idea of being entertained as a Sub-Inspector in the Police Department.

2. n

I beg to remain

Your most exalted Excellency

Yours most obedient servant

The humble memorialist, Mohamed Amiruddin

P.S.

Herewith attached the Official Memorandum which was communicated to the humble memorialist on the 11th February 1908.
