From M. R. M. Rangacharya Arayaal M. A.
Rao Bahadur,
Professor of Sanskrit and Comparative Philology, Presidency College,
Madras.

To The Honorable Mr. A. G. Bourne, D. Sc., Director of Public Instruction,
Madras.

Through
The Principal,
Presidency College,
Madras.

Sir, The Syndicate of the Madras University having been pleased to appoint me as a delegate to represent the Madras University at the forthcoming celebration of the jubilee of the Calcutta University, I have the honour to request your permission to accept this offered office of a delegate and to proceed to Calcutta in that capacity and to stay there as long as my presence might be required in connection with that jubilee celebration. Since Government officers, who have to be away on University duty, are generally considered to be on duty, though not entitled to draw travelling allowance from Government, I believe I need not be supposed to be other than on duty during this period of my delegate-ship: and in all probability the two Universities concerned will see to how the travelling charges of the delegates are to be met.

I have the honour to remain,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant
Edmund Gurney

Submitted to the Director of Public Institutions.

Khangahangai appointment was recommended by the Hon.
Mr Krishna Rao Aiyar as a Scholarly Indian gentleman and the Lybrate nominated him on these grounds and also as representing the Caste.

It is also recommended that he may be considered W. M. or clerk during his absence, which shall not exceed a week although it is not yet known how long the proceeding at Calcutta will last.

C. No. 616 From the D.P.I. No. 1686, dated 12-3-1908.

SUBJECT

Application from Rao Bahadur M. Rangachariar, Professor of Sanskrit, Pres. Coll. for permission to proceed to Calcutta for the jubilee celebration of the Calcutta University

No date is given

The D.P.I. submits an Application from M.R. Dy. M. Rangachariyar, Professor of Sanskrit, Presidency College, for permission to proceed to Calcutta to represent the University of Madras at the forthcoming celebration of the Jubilee of the Calcutta University. Dr. Bourne ~~and~~ recommends that the permission applied for may be granted & that M.R. Dy. Rangachariyar may be considered to be on duty during the period of his absence, which the Director considers will not exceed a week.

2. As the business on which M.R. Dy. M. Rangachariyar proposes to proceed to Calcutta is not Govt. business, ^{it is doubtful whether he can} ~~hence cannot be considered~~, he considered to be on duty during the period of his absence. He may however be given Casual leave for the period. Perhaps the A. G. may be consulted w.o. in the matter.

14-3-08 Please see the endorsement of Mr. Stone on p. 5 of the Current file from which it is observed that Mr. Rangachariyar has been selected ^{to} ~~as~~ the representative of the Madras University, an on the ground of his being a "scholarly Indian gentleman" and also as representing the Presidency College.

2. The following telephonic message may be sent to the Accountant General:-

Mr. Ramachariyer, Professor of Sanskrit, Presidency College, has been nominated by the University of Madras to represent it at the forthcoming celebration of the Jubilee of the Calcutta University. He is ^{from his duty} likely to be away ^{of about} for a period ~~not exceeding~~ one week. Can he be treated as on duty during this period?

14/3/08

See.

If Cpt. so like, there is no reason why Mr. Ramachariyer should not be deemed to be on duty.

14/3/08

I see no objection ~~to Mr. Ramachariyer~~ to Mr. Ramachariyer going to Calcutta - but he may be considered as on casual leave for the period of his absence, unless Govt. are willing to pay his travelling

Yes - Casual leave w^d not carry with it Grant of T.A.
And there is no need whatever for him to travel at Govt expense. That is all this Department is concerned with.
