Sir, I presume you are to place this paper, and only at least, my little paper the "Educationalist" which is an all-India Educational weekly. It is intended to serve as a useful means of disseminating special information of special interest to bodies engaged in Education all over India. The "Indian Journal of Education" of Messrs Lalchand and Co and the "Educational Review" of Messrs Srinivasa Vasudachari and Co are both excellent and as such the official and other Educational news appearing in them become stale matter by the time those two journals come out. But the official and other newspapers in my paper cannot become stale — is fresh — for the simple reason that it is published weekly after week. As regards the policy of my paper I may say that it is not conducted with the sole purpose of criticising the Educational policy of Govt., rather it has been started with the main object of recording the educational policy of Govt.

and recording the educational activity as well of all the provinces of India, to that comparison and contrast regarding the progress of Education all over India may be possible.

But I am sorry to inform you that my paper is not diffi-culty patronised by the Dept of Education and that consequently I am conducting ~~the paper~~ at a very heavy loss for the last 2 years. The Madras Govt takes only 2 copies of the paper one for the use of the Director of Public Instruction, and the other for the use of the Secretary to Govt, Edu-cational Dept. Whereas

2
The ⁶⁵Indian Journal of Education "which is now almost defunct" it has not made its appearance from last October — and the "Educational Review" are more largely patronised, is a fact of the fact I write to the Director of Public Instruction &
- say that I have to look up to the Dept for substantial help. But he has informed me that he can do nothing to further the interests of my paper.

Therefore now appeal to you for substantial help and request that you will be pleased to accord unto my paper sufficient patronage if you will only be so good as of very sober views. Further I am not an yesterday man my experience in the field of Education extends to twenty years.

I shall feel extremely obliged if you will please to encourage ^{me} as far as it lies in your power. There is no doubt that if you care to encourage any paper you can do so in many ways.
In the first place ^{place} you will please be so good as to recognise my paper as a useful means of disseminating official educational informa-tion. If permitted I shall see you in person at any time you fix.

Yrs. Sincerely
P. S. L. Sturges

U. O. No. 52 of 27-3-8

I do not see why the paper should be patronized - Many colleges wish to take it in the Reading Room the principle is well applied but it is not very useful literature. It is not a philanthropic undertaking and may be left to meet its fate if the demand does not suffice to support it.
