To,

The Secretary to Government
Educational Department
Ootacamund

Respected Sir,

I am an applicant for the post of a Sub-Inspector in the Police Department. I have passed the Lower Secondary Examination and have studied up to the Matriculation Class, but have not passed the latter examination.

17.4.08

I have however an excellent physique and should be glad to devote my energies to the service of my Country.

I am a Christian, — a class which does not seem to be properly represented in the Police Department. I am respectably connected, having several relations in the Public Service.

On submitting my application to the asst. Inspector General of Police, he has directed me to apply to the Government for exemption from the Matriculation examination.

I beg to request therefore that that the Government will be pleased to grant me the necessary exemption.

I beg to remain,
Respected Sir,
your most obedient servant
