Malappuram

23 June 1908

For no reason at all the above papers have been removed from the public office in which they were deposited at the time of their removal. It is Excellency the Governor of Madras. The Collector of Malabar and the Special Assistant Collector Malappuram. The humble memorial of J. A. Vinkatarani Head Clerk District Office, Malappuram. Most respectfully sheweth.

Page 2 of 2 No. 212 R 19-7-06

In 1906 Mr Kuapp, the Collector of Malabar recommended to Government that the memorialist might be permitted to appear for the Criminal Judicial Test as he was debarred by regulation to appear for that test being a matured & as he was one of the most men to be inserted in the Deputy Tahsildar's list. The memorialist regrets to state that the Government refused to grant the permission in F.O. no. 212, Educational, dated 19.7.06.

2. The humble memorialist now approaches your Excellency with a request to reconsider the above order.

3. As stated above, the memorialist is the present Head Clerk Divisional office, Malappuram No. 70 & has passed the examinations required for the post of a Deputy Tahsildar except the Criminal Judicial Test.
If the concession applied for is not granted, the memorialist begs to State that his further advancements are stopped and that he may have to retire from the public service in his present situation. In order to enable him to appear for the above test he must either pass the F.A. Examination of the Madras University or the Government Technical Examination & obtain a diploma. In 1907 & 1908 he tried to appear for the Technical Examinations & remitted the prescribed fees but he was not able to attend the Examinations as he was engaged in getting the accounts ready for the Divisional Officer's J. Amabandy.

4. The humble memorialist begs to state that he was a magisterial Clerk in the Divisional office for over six years & that his knowledge in Criminal Law is equal to that of an ordinary

Sub-~~in~~ ~~abstract~~, which fact will be borne out on a kind ~~reference~~ to Messrs F. Noyce A.R. L. Tottenham & C. W. E. Cotton under whom he had the opportunity to do magisterial work & on a kind perusal of the appended extract from Mr. Cotton's report:-

It is very unfortunate that you should be debarred by regulation from appearing for the one Special Test in which you are likely to gain distinction. 29.11.06."

5. Under these circumstances the humble memorialist most respectfully request that his hard case may be taken into kind consideration & that he may be permitted to appear for the Criminal Judicial Test, Higher or Lower grade, to be held in 1908 & 1909, for which act of kindness the humble memorialist shall ever pray.

Your Excellency's most obed^t humble serv^t;

J. R. Venkatarani

Head Clerk, Divisional

office - Malappuram

Submitted.

The applicant is a hard & conscientious worker. His character is I believe above reproach. As Head Clerk he has had to deal with Revenue matters almost entirely but a few occasions during vacancies he also supervised the magisterial work & showed a thorough mastery of it. Mr. Cotton I know had a good opinion of him as a magisterial Clerk.
It is from his point of view distinctly hard lines that he is debarred even from appearing for a Test which I believe he could pass easily.

NOTES.

C.No. 1494 From the Collector of Malabar No. 1383, dated 3. 7. 1908.

Amst.

T.R. Venkataramaya
SUBJECT. Submitting a petition from the Head clerk of the Divisional office, Malappuram, requesting that he may be permitted to appear for the Criminal Judicial test, Higher or Lower Grade.

T In G.O. 212 R. d. 19th July 1906 the Government stated that they saw no sufficient reason to permit T. R. Venkatarama aiyar, Head Clerk, Divisional office, Malappuram, to appear for the Criminal Judicial test.

2. T. R. Venkatarama aiyar now requests that G.O.
T. No. 212^{1st} of 19. 7. 06 may be reconsidered and he may be permitted to appear for the Criminal Judicial test, Higher or Lower grade, at the examinations to be held in October 1908 and 1909. From the endorsement of the Special Assistant Collector (Mr. Bellis) of Malappuram it will be observed that the Clerk "is a hard and Conscientious worker" and is thorough in Revenue and magisterial work.

3. It does not appear that sufficient grounds have been shown for a reconsideration of the orders already passed in the petitioner's case. Before final orders are passed the remarks of the Revenue Department may, it is submitted, be obtained &c.

T Please See the notes on pages 4 to 6 of G.O.
No. 212 R, dated 9th July 1906. It does not appear that any fresh grounds have now been shown to justify a reconsideration of the orders already passed. The recommendation of the Head Assistant Collector is based purely on personal grounds. The Collector does not make any recommendation in favour of the petitioner
