and that his family circumstances not permitting him to continue his studies further, he is obliged to seek an employment. The enclosed copies of Testimonials will speak to his attainments and character.

That your Excellency's Memorialist most respectfully begs to add that he belongs to a respectable family, whose ancestors have rendered meritorious and yeoman service to the British Government for nearly a decade of a century. My Great Grand Father served as a Native Commissioned Officer in the Seringapatam siege and wars and did yeoman service under the Command of General Harris in 1792. His remarkable service may be seen from his service note book. His meritorious service to the state was the means of procuring to my ^{Grand} father a good employment of Thasildar and Magistrateship under the Governorship of Lord Harris. Further we were given a Shrotrium by the Government free of assessment for the service rendered.

That your Excellency's Memorialist begs to inform you that his grandfather served the Government for 30 years in various walks of life and retired on pension. As a Thasildar and Magistrate he was considered to be one of the ablest and faithful servants of the Government. It is needless here to explain refer in detail the various expressions of good opinion recorded of him by the several esteemed gentlemen under whom he served. The enclosed letter addressed to him a few years ago by a distinguished Revenue officer lately Member, Hon'ble Board of Revenue will bear out my assertion.

and that his family circumstances not permitting him to continue his studies further, he is obliged to seek an employment. The enclosed copies of testimonials will appear to his Excellency and character.

My Great Grand Father served as a Native Commissioned Officer in the Serinagapatam district and was awarded several medals under the Command of General Harris in 1848. His remarkable services may be seen from his service book. His meritorious services to the State was the means of procuring to my Father a good employment of Thasildar and subsequently under the Government of Madras. Further he was given a Commission by the Government for the service rendered.

Most Honored Sir,

As directed by His Excellency the Governor of Madras in his letter dated 23rd in reply to my application, I beg to be pardoned for my presumption in addressing you the following lines for your honor's favorable and kind consideration.

I have been induced by your honor's kindness and sympathy who appeal to your honor's generosity, to lay before your honor in peculiar unfortunate circumstances in the feign hope that your honor will be pleased to give that merciful consideration which the circumstances of the case may require.

With sentiments of deep respects, I beg to offer myself as a candidate for the post of a clerk in your Department and beg your honor to exempt me from passing Madras University Matriculation Examination in order to qualify myself for Government service in consideration of the following facts.

As for my qualifications, I beg to state that I have passed the Lower Secondary Examination, an examination just immediately low in rank to Madras University Matriculation examination, a copy of the Certificate I herewith enclose for your honor's kind perusal. I had this fortune to fail in the last Matriculation Examination which was one of unprecedented difficulty. My family circumstances not permitting me to continue my studies further, am obliged to seek an employment. The enclosed copies of Testimonials will speak to my educational attainments and moral character.

I beg most respectfully to add that I belong to a respectable family whose ancestors have rendered meritorious and common services to the British Government for nearly a decade of a Century. My great-grandfather served as a Native Commissioned Officer in the Seringapatam siege and wars and did yeoman service under the Command of General Harris, afterwards Lord Harris Governor of Madras. His meritorious service to the state was the means of procuring to my grandfather a good employment of Thasildar and Magistracy. Further we were endowed a Shrothrum free of assessment for the services rendered, by the Government. My grandfather served the Government for about 35 years in various walks of life and retired on Pension. It is needless to refer in detail here, the various expressions of good opinion recorded of him by the several esteemed Gentlemen under whom he served. The enclosed letter addressed to him a few years ago by a distinguished Revenue Officer lately member Honorable Board of Revenue will bear out my assertion.

It may not be out of place to add here that though not fortunate to secure success in the last Entrance Examination, yet my actual qualifications are none the less inferior to that of a passed candidate for the main and important reason that I received my instruction under the tuition of the well known Principal Rev H. Schaffter M. A. a copy of whose testimony is also enclosed. My aspirations to the appointment may seem stretched and preposterous in these days of keen competition but I beg to submit that in the peculiar circumstances of my case, my claims are in no way inferior to others, however high their educational qualifications may be.

I beg to state that the present condition of my family is pitiable having had the responsibility to support many members of my family in these scarce famine days. I herewith enclose copies of letters received from their Excellencies Commander-in-Chief and the Viceroy in reply to my applications.

I finally beg to submit that your honor will be pleased in the exceptional and the peculiar poor circumstances of my respectable family to take a compassionate view of my hard and pitiable case and of the respectability of my family who have been

P. D. Krishnaswamy was a student last ~~school~~ year in the sixth form of this school and his conduct was in every way satisfactory. I believe him to be a conscientious, hard working young man and think he would do his best to discharge properly any duties with which he is entrusted.

A copy of testimonial by S. Antony B.A.L.T.

P. Krishnaswamy has been a student at the C.M.S. College Tinnevely from the year 1903 and is now reading in the matriculation class. He attended my classes in English during his year. He is an intelligent and painstaking young man with pleasant manners. I am highly pleased with his conduct and so are his other teachers. He intends applying for the Sub-Overseer Examination which is to be held shortly. I wish him success in it.
