The telegram as decoded, stands thus:-

" Have you any objection to the grant to the following officer of extraordinary leave without pay in extension of his present leave for the period of three weeks. Odgers Law College urgent private affairs."

2. In G.O. No. 158 Est., dated 4th March 1908, Mr. Odgers was permitted to proceed to Europe during the summer vacation of the Law College, subject to the condition that he returned to Madras by the date fixed for the reopening of the College. The vacation of the Law College commenced from 17th April 1908 and the College reopens on the 29th June 1908.
Mr. Odgers was similarly permitted to go home during the summer vacation of 1907, and was granted by the Secretary of State leave on medical certificate for four months in

Continuation of the Summer vacation of the College.
The Principal of the Law College has been granted leave for six months in combination with the Summer vacation of the College and he has already left India under the sanction conveyed in G.O. No. 158801, dated 4th March 1908. Mr. Odgers has been appointed to act as Principal in the place of Mr. Nelson from the date of reopening of the College, and if the extraordinary leave for three weeks asked of him by Mr. Odgers were sanctioned, the Law College will probably have to get on without a Principal for three weeks after the reopening.

Sec.

If information had been given as to the reasons for the extension, it would have been easier to answer the S. of S. It will be very inconvenient if the Principal is absent when the College re-opens.

Chl
28.5.8.

Mr Rogers, in the matter of extension of vacation, appears to be ^{taking a leaf out of} ~~following~~ ^{Mr Nelson's book} ~~the footsteps of Mr Nelson~~. No reasons for the proposed extension are assigned & Mr Rogers was allowed to proceed to Europe for the vacation subject to the distinct condition that he should return to duty on the re-opening of the College. Whether or no he will accept the acting appointment of Principal remains to be seen - but in any case he ~~will~~ ^{is} bound to return to duty as Vice Principal.

I submit that the pension should be refused.

The following telegram may be sent to the Secretary of State

Your telegram 26th. The Governor

Council regrets that he is unable to ~~unanimously~~ ^{approve} any extension of leave to Mr Rogers, who was permitted to proceed to Europe for vacation on the distinct
