From the facts brought to light in L.M. it seems clear that this man would not do for the police.

How did that matter end? The Overseers reported that all the missing cocks had been replaced; but there is nothing to show whether this was the case, or what explanation was forthcoming for their having been missing. Is anything further known in the office? The Overseers may have had a satisfactory explanation.

p4cf Cur No. 3166 M from the C.M.C. Madras No. 246 & 24 Aug 08

The Chairman, in his proceedings dated 13th June 07, ordered the recovery ^(within 3 months) from the water works overseer (Mr. Matcher) of ^{Rs 789-8-0 being} the value of 51 waste-not Cocks and 152 other Cocks which were not accounted for. Though

Mr. Matcher's appeal to the Council against the above order was dismissed, the Chairman had ^{at the instance of the Council} to further investigate into the matter in the light of the subsequent information supplied by the overseer. Owing to the unsatisfactory state of the old accounts, the Chairman eventually accepted the ^{but} explanation of the overseer ~~but~~ directed him to pay the cost of one wastenot cock (viz, Rs 12-8-0) for the disappearance of which no explanation was forthcoming.
With the recovery of this small sum

Truly a case of "Parturient montes"!

Mr. Mather's explanation as accepted by the Council ~~was~~ must presumably, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, be accepted by J.C. also.

This case arose from an application by the D.G. of Police for the permanent exemption of H. H. Mather, waterworks overseer, Madras, from the Matriculation Exam. for appointment as Sergeant.
It was discovered in L.M. that Mather was suspected of having made away with some water taps.
The last letter in the file shows how far the charge is true. These would still seem to have been something suspicious in the man's conduct & it is doubtful whether such a person should be in the police. A copy of the correspondence might be sent to the D-G with the remark that in the lines the Govt do not consider it advisable to grant the exemption sought for.

As far as I can judge there is very little against this man except that he kept his teeth bad. The teeth seem to have been complicated & kept bad for years so I don't suppose this man is much to blame.

However I don't think we need write to J.G. with the papers merely say that Govt repeat they cannot in this case grant the exemption.
