Abstract

Mr. R. W. Green, Acting Deputy Collector

Exempting from passing certain tests.

G.O. No. 2183, Revenue, dated 10th October 1900

From the following papers:
From the Collection of Government, No. 2183, Rev. of G.O. dated 10th October 1900, subject to the application of Mr. R. W. Green, Deputy Collector, of Godavari District, that he may be exempted from passing certain tests.

G.O. No. 2183

Mr. R. W. Green will, in the circumstances mentioned, be exempted from passing the Examination test provided for Deputy Collectors.
Under Rule III of the Provincial Civil Service Rules, Mr. Green is required to pass the Third Class Examination test before appointment as Deputy Collector, and a test in the vernacular which corresponds to the examination of Government Civil Servants at the District level after appointment. As he has not the Salt A in hand, he will be exempted from passing the Third Class Examination test, but should be required to pass the examination test in the vernacular corresponding to the examination of Government Civil Servants at the District level.

Abstract

Mr. E. W. K. Green, Acting Deputy Collector.

Exempting from passing certain tests.

G.O. No. 2183, Revenue, dated 3rd October 190

From the following reports:

From the Collector of Godavari, No. 2183, dated 27

28, dated 1st August 190, submitting the application of

Mr. E. W. K. Green, Deputy Collector, on Special Duty stating that he may be exempted from passing certain special tests.

O R D E R

Mr. E. W. K. Green will, in the circumstances reported, be exempted from passing the Education test prescribed for Deputy

Collectors.

Under Rule 111 of the Provincial Civil Service Rules,

Mr. Green is required to pass the Third Class Vernacular Test before appointment as Deputy Collector, and a test in the vernacular language corresponding to the examination of Government Civil Servants by the higher standard after appointment. As he has passed the 3rd E in Tamil, he will be exempted from passing the Third Class Vernacular Test, but should be informed that he should pass the test in two vernaculars corresponding to the examination of Government Civil Servants by the higher standard.

3. As Mr. Green has passed the Salt Tests A and C, he will not be required to pass the Criminal Judicial Test and the Account Test, Higher Grade. Orders will issue in the Educational Department exempting him from these two tests.

To Under Secretary.

Mr. E. W. K. Green, No. 44 in the Acting list, was appointed Ag. Dy. Collr. in June last for Special Duty; Godavari, to ~~superk~~ supervise the work of eradication of palm diseases. Before appointment as Dy. Collector he was 4th grade Inspector, Salt and Abkari Dept. In the Salt Dept. he had passed the following tests:-

V (Sea Customs Test); VIII-A (Precis-writing); A (Criminal Law); B (Salt); C (Accounts); D-1 (Surveying); E (Vernacular examination) in Tamil; F (Abkari test); G (Customs). To qualify him fully for the post of Dy. Collr. he has yet to pass:-

- (1) Revenue Higher.
- (2) Criminal Higher.
- (3) Account Test Higher.
- (4) Third Class Vernacular Test.
- (5) Vernacular Test in two languages

corresponding to the examination of the Covenanted Civil Servants by the Higher Standard.

- (6) Equitation Test.

Mr. Green ^{requests} that he may be exempted from passing examinations No. (2) Criminal Higher, Part of No. (5) Vernacular Test in Tamil and No. (6) Equitation Test on the following grounds:-

2. I. Criminal Higher. Mr. Green states that he passed the Salt Dept. Test A in 1895 ~~or 1896~~ when the papers were the same as those set for the

Criminal Higher Examination and requests that he may be held to have passed the latter test. The subjects for the Salt Test A in 1895-96 and the Criminal Higher Test were:-

Salt Test A.	Criminal Higher Test
(i) Indian Penal Code	(i) Indian Penal Code
(ii) Indian Evidence Act	(ii) Indian Evidence Act
(iii) Criminal Procedure Code	(iii) Criminal Procedure Code
	(iv) Medical jurisprudence

Salt Test A was therefore wanting in the Medical Jurisprudence prescribed for Criminal Higher. In this connexion reference is solicited to the notes at page 14 of Notes No.703 d/9-9-07 to 8-10-07
in which the Govt. considered that Mr.
M.G.K.Waite who had passed Salt Test A might be exempted from the Criminal Higher Test. For orders whether Mr.
Green will be exempted from passing this test.

3. II. Vernacular Test in Tamil.

Mr.Green also states that he intends to appear for the Higher Standard in Telugu in January next and requests that as he had already passed the Salt Test E in Tamil, he may be held to have passed in the 2nd language /required of Dy.
Collrs. The requirement of the Salt Test
E in Tamil and those of the examination in Tamil for Covenanted Civilians are:-

Salt Test E.	Higher Examination of Assts. Division B.
(i) Ability to converse fluently in the language	(i) Conversation
(ii) Reading an ordinary petition or report from petty officer.	(2) Reading arzis Explanation of arzis Dictation of orders.
(iii). Writing an order in the vernacular.

Mr. C. J. M. Blake who was recruited from the Salt Dept. and who had passed Salt Test E in Tamil was exempted from passing the vernacular in a second language. Orders are solicited whether a similar concession will be allowed in the case of Mr. Green.

4. III. Equitation Test.-

Mr. Green states that before joining the Salt Dept. he was in the cavalry of His Highness the Nizam of Hyderabad and obtained a certificate when he passed the Riding School. He requests that he may be exempted from the Riding Test. Dy. Collrs. who were recruited from the Salt Dept. such as Messrs. C. J. M. Blake, M. G. K. Waite, W. H. H. Thatterton have been exempted from this test. It is for orders whether Mr. Green will also be similarly exempted.

5. The Collr. of Godavari (Mr. R. W. D. Ashe) recommends that Mr. Green may be exempted from these tests as he cannot spare time to study this year owing to the special duty which fully engages him.

Has not a Dy. Collr. to do a Survey course too?

F.N.

To Under Secy.

It is submitted that a course of Survey training has been prescribed only for Probationary Dy. Collrs. who are appointed whether after competitive Examination nation

or by selection. In the case of other Deputy Collectors no such course has been prescribed. Mr. Green was appointed Acting Deputy Collector from the Salt Dept.

To the Hon'ble Member.

As in the case of Mr. Waite, (Notes 703 dated 9th September 1907), Mr. Green may, I submit, be exempted from the Criminal Higher Test. He is, I know, a first class horseman and may be exempted from the equitation test.

2. As to languages Mr. Green's position is exactly the same as that of Mr. Chatterton (G.O.No.1155 dated 14th December 1906). He is, under the Provincial Service Rules, (G.O.No.50 Pub., dated 27-1-05) required to pass the third class vernacular Test before appointment and the Higher ~~Test~~ Standard Test for the Indian Civil Service in two languages after appointment. He has passed the Salt Test E in Tamil and ~~xxx~~ requests that this may be regarded as the equivalent of the second language in the Higher Standard. Mr. Chatterton was exempted from passing the third class Vernacular Test but told to pass in two Vernaculars as required in the Higher Standard Examination for Civilians. It seems sufficient, I submit, if the same order is passed in the case of Mr. Green.

3. Mr. Green has not asked to be exempted from the Account Test Higher but in order to avoid a further reference, the question may, I submit, be settled now and he may be exempted from this test as he has passed the Salt Test

The examinations compare as follows:-

Account Test Higher

Subjects { Civil Service Regulations
Civil Account Code Vol. I

Salt Test C

Subjects { Civil Service Regulations
Civil Account Code Vol. I
Chapters 1, 3 to 7, 10 & 15.

Had Mr. Waite not reverted from the Salt Dept. he would have been exempted
