I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to accord general sanction under Article 137(a) of the Civil Account Code to my granting special advances up to a maximum limit of Rs 200 to each of the Sub-Assistant Inspectors of boys' schools, excluding Sub-Assistant Inspectors of Muhammadan and Sanskrit Schools, so as to enable them to provide themselves with conveyances of their own. I think it very desirable in the interests of the public service as well as of discipline that these officers should be required to maintain conveyances of their own for use in their tours of inspection, and have issued orders accordingly.

2. There is no audit objection to Government sanctioning an advance in any specific case covered by Article 137(a), Civil Account Code, subject to such conditions of its recovery as Government may deem fit to impose; but, if it is intended to accord a general sanction, for the grant of advances of the sort in question, to all Sub-Assistant Inspectors of Boys' Schools, as a class, the approval of the Government of India should be obtained to the scheme.

3. The Director's proposal amounts to a delegation to him of the power, now vested in Government, of sanctioning advances, under Article 137(a), Civil Account Code, and, therefore, requires the sanction of the Government of India.

MEMORANDUM: No 1981-1 of 22-9-08

With reference to his letter R.C. No.5212, dated 10th August 1908, requesting the general sanction of Government to the payment of advances not exceeding Rs.200 ^{each} to Sub-Assistant Inspectors of Boys' Schools to enable them to provide conveyances of their own, the D.P.I. is requested to report what sort of a conveyance a Sub-Assistant Inspector ^{should find one} ~~can get~~ for Rs.200, and how he is to take it about with him and at what cost. The Director ^{he proposes that} is also requested to state how the cost of carriage of the conveyance ^{should} ~~will~~ be met.

Madras.

To the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.

Sir,

In reply to Government Memorandum No. 1981-1 Educational dated 22nd September 1908, I have the honour to state that it is proposed to leave it to the option of the Sub Assistant Inspector to purchase a cart and a pair of bullocks, a bicycle or a horse, whichever suits him best. As his range is limited and seldom extends beyond a taluk or two, it is expected that he will use the conveyance in all his movements. He is paid a ^{fixed} monthly travelling allowance out of which he will meet the incidental charges.

I have ruled that, unless specially exempted, each Sub Assistant must provide himself with some means of locomotion on account of the frequent complaints that they indented upon school masters and others for conveyances.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
your most obedient servant,
A. G. Bourne

C.No.1981, from the D.P.I., No.5212, dated 10th Aug.1908.

Subject.

Advance to Sub-Assistant Inspectors of Schools for providing themselves with conveyances of their own.

The D.P.I. requests ^{that} general sanction may be accorded under Article 137(a) of the Civil Account Code to his granting special advances up to a maximum limit of Rs 200, to each of the Sub-Assistant Inspectors of Boys' Schools, excluding the Sub-Assistant Inspectors of Muhammadan and Sanskrit Schools, so as to enable them to provide themselves with conveyances of their own for use in their tours of inspection. ~~and~~ He states that he has issued orders accordingly. Dr. Bourne observes that if an advance is granted to a Sub-Assistant, it may be recovered from his pay in ten equal monthly instalments.

2. The Director thinks it very desirable in the interests of the public service as well as of discipline that the Sub-Assistant Inspectors should be required to maintain conveyances of their ^{for use} own in their tours of inspection.

3. The Accountant General states that the Director's proposal amounts to a delegation to him of the power, now vested in Government, of sanctioning advances, under Article 137(a) of the Civil Account Code, and that therefore it requires the sanction of the Government of India. The Accountant-General however observes that there is no audit objection to the Government's sanctioning an advance in any specific case covered by Article 137(a) of the Civil Account Code, subject to such conditions as to its recovery as Government may deem fit to impose.

4. Excluding the ^{Inspectors} Muhammadan Sub-Assistants and the Sub-Assistants ^{Inspector} of Sanskrit Schools, there are 111 Sub-Assistant Inspectors of Boys' Schools.
Their pay ranges from ₹75 to ₹175 per mensem.
It is not stated whether ^{any} of these Sub-Assistants have not already got conveyances of their own, and whether all of them require an advance for providing themselves with conveyances. It is probable that some of them at least have already got conveyances of their own and that some others can afford to provide themselves with conveyances without advances.
It is therefore ^{for} consideration whether the D.P.I.
may be told that the general sanction applied for by him cannot be given, but that he may apply for the sanction of Government in specific cases.

5. Each Sub-Assistant is now paid a fixed travelling allowance of ₹25 per mensem.

But what a sort of conveyance can a subant ^{husp} get for Rs 200 : & how he is to take it about with him & at what cost : & who is to pay the cost of the carriage of the conveyance? A subant ^{husp} shd ride a bicycle, I think.

2. It is however submitted that the idea apparently is that the Sub-Assistants should provide themselves only with bullock carts which ^{presumably} can be obtained for ₹200. The cost of maintaining such a conveyance will be met from the fixed travelling allowance of ₹.25 per mensem which is now paid to them. Please see para.5 of the office note on page 2 supra.

3. The Sub-Assistant Inspectors' range generally extends over two revenue taluks and a cycle may not probably answer quite as well as a bullock cart, especially as he will have to take his office records with him.

[Memo no 1981-1 dated 22-9-08]

From the D.P.O. Memo. 5212 dated 6-10-08

The D.P.O. states that he proposes to leave it to the option of the Sub-Assist Inspector to purchase a cart and a pair of bullocks, a bicycle or a horse, whichever suits him best. As regards the cost of maintenance of the conveyance, he says that it can be met out of the fixed monthly travelling allowance paid to the Sub-Assist. Inspectors of Schools.

2. The Director notes that on account of the frequent complaints that Sub-Assist Inspectors indented upon schoolmasters and others for conveyances he has ruled that, unless specially exempted each Sub. Asst. must provide himself with some means of locomotion.
