Clerk, Mangalore, you impressed me that you are a willing, hard-working and capable clerk and that you were prompt in carrying out instructions given to you. I hope and wish you get on, as you deserve, there being very few of your community in service in that district.

To

the Governor of Madras in Council.

Through

The Collector of South Canara.

Humble petition of M. Abdul ---- Khader, clerk, Collector's office
Mangalore, Dated 17th October 1908.

Most respectfully sheweth,

That your Excellency's humble petitioner is one of the few Muhammadans in this district who have succeeded in securing a footing in the superior grade of the Government service.

2. That it is a well known fact that members of the Muhammadan community, ordinarily, seldom avail themselves of the benefit of English education with the result that there are in the public service very few Muhammadans possessing the necessary qualifications. The petitioner too had to close his school career in the Matriculation class before passing that examination for which, however, he had appeared though unsuccessfully, and consequently he had to labour under a great disadvantage. But he humbly begs to submit that through the kind intervention of the local authorities he succeeded in procuring an exemption from the Examination Rules at the hands of your Excellency's benign Government, with a view to his admission into the superior grade of the public service on Rs. 15 and upwards. (Vide G.O., No. 732, Educational, dated 4th September 1895). Petitioner thus--- got a permanent post on Rs. 15 at first and then one on -- Rs. 20, and he is now acting in a post of Rs. 30. The--- work that he now does was formerly done by the sub-ordinate who was designated as the Vernacular Recor-keeper, the pay of which post was Rs. 50. Your Excellency in Council will be pleased to find that this post requires intelligent and careful exercise of one's abilities.

3. That as exemption from the Examination Rules -- ordinarily confers a privilege to appear for the Special-- Test Examinations, petitioner did not in his former petition for exemption specially include ^{a prayer} for such permission-- and consequently that the Government Order quoted above--- reveals a restriction to the effect that the exemption --- therein accorded does not involve permission to appear for the Special Tests.
a prayer

4. That although petitioner is an unpassed candi- date, he was recommended for exemption from the Examination -Rules as he was deserving of encouragement. The petition- er humbly submits that he belongs to a respectable family, and the enclosed copies of testimonials &c., will, he---- humbly trusts, satisfy your Excellency's Government as to his conduct and capacity.

5. That gentlemen like Sir F.A. Nicholson and--- Justice A.F. Pinhey entertained a favourable opinion of the -petitioner and they recommended petitioner for the post of a police Inspector. But orders were received that there were no vacancies.

6. That petitioner now counts a service of nearly 13 years in the Revenue department, and having done his duties satisfactorily his present attempt for the betterment of his prospects will, he humbly ventures to trust, meet with ^{the} gracious consideration which he now aspires for.

7. Petitioner in conclusion humbly and respectfully prays that your Excellency's Government may, on a kind consideration of the foregoing circumstances, be graciously--pleased to accord permission to admit of petitioner appearing for the Special Test Examinations; for which act of justice and kindness, petitioner shall ever remain grateful and shall ever pray.

2. The numerous testimonials possessed by the Petitioner testify to his ability and satisfactory character. Petitioner is a reliable and useful subordinate. He may, if Government --- pleases, be permitted to appear for the Translation, Account, Criminal and Revenue Tests, Lower Grade. NOTES

The case of Puller Indian, which is referred to as a precedent, was very different. He had passed the Maharashtra examination and certain special tests in addition and was a clerk at Rs 30.

The present case is entirely unprecedented. I submit that the principle that the ~~total~~ number of candidates appearing for the special tests should not be swelled by special exceptions to unpassed men should, as far as possible be maintained, ~~the~~ ^{the} permission being given only in exceptional cases to men who possess at least some educational attainments. The permission may be refused.
