* In the case of the Rajahmundry and Law Colleges, the periods of vacation last year included the Easter holidays.

3. Christmas vacation.—According to rule 62 (1) of the old Educational Rules, fourth edition, page 17, the Christmas vacation in Arts Colleges and schools usually extended from the 23rd December to the 15th January or for 23 days. For the Christmas vacation of 1907–1908, the Presidency and Mangalore Colleges and the Teachers' College, Saidapet, were closed for 24 days from the 23rd December to 15th January and the Kumbakonam and Rajahmundry Colleges and the Training College, Rajahmundry, for 25 days from the 23rd December to 16th January. For the ensuing Christmas vacation, it is proposed to close the Presidency College for 27 days from the 22nd December to 17th January; the Kumbakonam and Rajahmundry Colleges and the Training College, Rajahmundry, for 28 days from the 21st December to 18th January; the Mangalore College for 22 days from the 14th December to 5th January and the Teachers' College for 21 days from the 21st December to 11th January. The Pongul holidays in 1909 fall on the 13th and 14th January, and the 15th being a Friday,† the reopening of the colleges after the Christmas holidays appears to have been fixed for the 18th Monday.

† The 16th and 17th January are Saturday and Sunday.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR.

4. Under rule 33 of the Law College rules sanctioned in G.O., No. 118, Educational, dated 14th February 1908, that "college shall be closed for a month at Christmas". For the ensuing Christmas it is proposed to close the college for 30 days from the 11th December 1908 to 10th January 1909. The 10th of January 1909 is a Sunday. The College may therefore reopen on Monday the 11th.

† Vide rule 8 of the Engineering College rules, on page 62 of the Calendar.

6. Summer vacation.—Under 62 (1) of the Educational Rules, fourth edition, page 16, the Summer vacation in first-grade colleges extended to two months and that of second-grade colleges to one month and fifteen days. For the Summer vacation of 1909 it is proposed to close the Presidency and Kumbakonam Colleges for two months and nine days, combining the § Six days—vide rule 88 of the Educational Rules, fifth edition.

Easter holidays § with the vacation. The Director of Public Instruction sees no objection to this combination.

7. As regards the Mangalore College, the Director of Public Instruction states that the Principal requests permission to reopen the college on the 7th June 1909 instead of on the 4th, which is a Friday, the college being kept open on the 12th June, which is a Saturday, as a working day. There appears to be no objection to this proposal.

8. The duration of the Summer vacation of the Law College, under rule 33 of the College Rules, sanctioned in G.O., No. 118, Educational, dated 14th February 1908, is nine weeks*. For the Summer vacation of 1909 it is proposed to close the college for two months† and four days from 23rd April 1909 to 27th June 1909. The Director of Public Instruction notes that the Principal has included one extra day—Friday—the 23rd April 1909, to enable him to proceed to England. In the current year also the date of closing of the college for the Summer vacation was changed so as to enable the Principal to proceed to England. The date of reopening of the college after the vacation as proposed, however, falls on a Sunday (27th June 1909). It is for consideration whether the college may not reopen on Monday the 28th June 1909, instead of on Sunday as now proposed.

* Or 63 days.
† Or one day more than is allowed by the rules.

9. The Summer vacation of the college of Engineering is as fixed in rule 6 (c) approved in G.O., No. 159, Educational, dated 20th March 1908, and that of the Medical College as fixed in paragraph 5 (d) of G.O., No. 654, Educational, dated 22nd October 1896.

T.K.—25–11–08.

Please see paragraphs 1 to 5 of the office-note, dated 6th November 1907, on pages 1 and 2 of G.O., No. 785, Educational, dated 22nd November 1907, from which it is observed that the power of fixing the duration of the vacation of Government colleges rests with Government—vide also G.O., No. 615, Educational, dated 19th September 1906.

2. In the case of the Presidency College and the Kumbakonam College, it is proposed to combine the number of holidays for Easter‡ with the Summer vacation.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—27–11–08.

The proposals give three months generally between the end of the Christmas holidays and the beginning of the Summer holidays. The Christmas holidays may be approved.

2. The only point about the Summer holidays is the extra day at the Law college. Please see page 2, K.W. G.O., No. 117, Educational, dated 14th February 1908. It seems doubtful whether the extra day should be allowed.

H. D. TAYLOR.

C. A. SOUTER—27–11–08.

The references are to the fourth edition of the Educational Rules as regards colleges which are not governed by special rules. The new rules make no provision for these holidays as it was decided that Government should fix the holidays in each case.

Page 41 of K.W. G.O., No. 509, Educational, dated 31st July 1906.

2. Easter day falls on Sunday, 11th April. I could understand, if Easter fell later, a proposal to combine the Summer vacation with the Easter holidays in the case of the Presidency and the Kumbakonam

Colleges, but when there is a considerable interval between Easter and the date of the vacation, it hardly seems expedient to direct the colleges to work at Easter and to add a corresponding period to the vacation. The object of the Easter holidays is to afford a rest or break during the term and Government colleges get 6 days such holidays as against 4 days allowed to officers of Government. If the period of holidays is to be

Yes.

G. S. F[ORBES].

Friday will in any case be observed as a holiday and probably the succeeding Saturday (a College holiday) and Sunday as well.

Is it not up to Sunday (being last day of holidays) inclusive?

G. S. F[ORBES].

which the Principal desires for the Summer vacation is that the college will get 2 days longer than it ought, for the benefit of the Principal.

Mr. Nelson is due back from leave on 16th April. The commencement of the Law College vacation is proposed from April 23rd.

H. D. TAYLOR—30-11-08.

The Law College should close from Monday 26th inclusive and reopen on Monday 28th June.

A | Where the holidays are to be taken from the beginning of Easter, the vacation should not be lengthened on that account.

G. S. F[ORBES]—1-12-08.

In his note on the margin above regarding the date of reopening of the Law College, the Honourable Member observes—

“Is it not up to Sunday (being last day of holidays) inclusive?”

2. It is submitted that in the statement in the current file, the date of reopening of the Law College, after the Christmas vacation, is given as 10th January 1909, which is a Sunday, and the date of reopening after the Summer vacation as 27th June 1909, also a Sunday. Sunday does not thus appear to be included in the vacation.

3. With reference to the Honourable Member's remarks at A supra, it is submitted that it is not proposed in the case of any of the colleges to take the Summer vacation from the beginning of the Easter holidays. The Easter holidays commence on the 8th April 1909 (Thursday) and terminate with the 13th idem,

The Medical College proposes to close on 1st April 1909, i.e., Easter will come into the vacation.

C. A. SOUTER—3-12-08.

and to combine the full number of days usually allowed as holidays with the Summer vacation.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—2-12-08.

The above note seems correct except in the case of the Medical College which is to be closed on Thursday, 1st April 1909. The Easter holidays will therefore be a part of the vacation.

The following points arise:—

(1) If colleges are kept at work during the recognised Easter holidays, should they be required to work on Good Friday 9th and Saturday 10th April, on which days the colleges would ordinarily be closed?

(2) If work is done during the holidays, what period is to be added to the vacation by way of compensation—whether the full number of days ordinarily allowed in the college as Easter vacation (6)—or the number of days allowed to Government offices (4).

H. D. TAYLOR—4-12-08.

The professors and masters look at the matter from their point of view and not from the point of view of the pupils and their fathers.

I agree with Mr. Taylor in his remarks at the top of page 4 of the notes. We better stick to the Easter holidays independently and add nothing to the ordinary vacation. But for the future the rule might be amended and the Easter holidays reduced to four days as in Government offices, if the department still stick to the argument that the Easter holidays are too short for boys to visit their homes.

G. S. F[ORBES]—10-12-08.

Draft please.

H. D. TAYLOR—10-12-08.

Draft submitted for approval.

2. The date of reopening of the Law College after the Christmas holidays is given in the draft order as Monday the 11th January 1909 instead of Sunday the 10th January as proposed.

3. The date of closing of the Presidency and Kumbakonam Colleges for the Summer vacation of 1909 is entered as Monday the 3rd May 1909, instead of Monday the 26th April 1909 as proposed. During the current year the colleges were closed on the 8th and 4th May 1908, respectively.

4. The date of reopening of the Mangalore College after the Summer vacation is given as Monday the 7th June 1909 as recommended by the Director of Public Instruction on the understanding that Saturday the 12th June 1909 will be observed as a working day.

5. The dates of closing and reopening of the Law College for the Summer vacation have been fixed as 26th April and 28th June 1909, with reference to the Honourable Member's orders on page 4 supra. The date of closing of the Medical College for Christmas has been altered from 21st to 23rd December 1908, with reference to the Director of Public Instruction's letter No. 6993, dated 9th December 1908. The original proposal was to close on 21st December 1908 (inclusive) and reopen on the 4th January 1909, thus allowing 14 holidays. By altering the closing from the 21st to 23rd December, the number of holidays is reduced to 12.

H. D. TAYLOR.

This proposal seems to be unobjectionable.

T.K.—10-12-08.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—10-12-08.

The draft may be approved.

C. A. SOUTER—10-12-08.

Does the duration of the holidays in each case accord with the rules or custom, where no rules exist.

Please put up a tabular statement showing for each institution for Christmas and Summer vacations—

(1) recognised number of days holidays.

A | (2) days allowed for in the present draft.

(3) reason, if any, for prolonging the vacations beyond the prescribed period in each case.

H. D. TAYLOR—10-12-08.

Under rule 62 (1) of the old Educational Rules, 4th Edition, page 17, the duration of the Christmas holidays in Arts Colleges

From December 23rd to January 15th.

C. A. SOUTER.

is 23 days, while the Summer vacation in the case of first-grade Arts Colleges is usually two months and in the case of second-grade colleges, 1 month and 15 days. The Christmas and Summer vacations of the Law College are fixed at one month and 9 weeks, respectively, by Rule 33 of the Law College rules sanctioned in G.O., No. 115, Educational, dated 14th February 1908.

There is no rule fixing the duration of the Christmas holidays for the Medical and Engineering Colleges. The Summer vacation in the Medical College extends from 1st April to 30th June under paragraph 5 (d) of G.O., No. 654, Educational, dated 22nd October 1896, and that of the College of Engineering from 1st May to 14th

Page 7 of the Government Order.

If the prescribed period of only 23 days is allowed for in these cases from the date now proposed for closing, the Presidency College will have to reopen on 14th January 1909 and the other three colleges on 13th January 1909. The Pongal holidays in 1909 fall on the 13th and 14th January. The 15th is a Friday and the 16th and 17th are holidays for the colleges. The reopening of the colleges after the Christmas holidays appears therefore to have been fixed for the 18th.
