(Educational Department)

Sir,

I am directed to forward for the orders of His Excellency the Governor in Council a copy of letter dated 16th November 1908, No. 31 98 from the District Judge, Godavari (with one enclosure) recommending that P. Venkataramayya, Translator of the District Court, may be exempted from passing Civil Judicial Test, Lower Grade, so that he may be appointed as the Head Clerk of that Court.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Forwarding to Government a copy of letter with one enclosure from the District Judge, Godavari, recommending that P.Venkataramayya may be exempted from passing Civil Judicial Test, Lower Grade.

OFFICE OF THE
DISTRICT JUDGE
GODAVARI

Letter No. 3198, dated 16th November 1908.
Diwan Bahadur M.O. Parthasarathy Aiyangar Avl., M.A., M.L., District Judge, Godavari, to the Registrar, High Court, Madras.

In forwarding herewith an application from P.Venkataramayya aged about 46, Translator of my Court on a salary of Rs. 75, I have the honour to recommend strongly that Government may be moved to exempt him from passing the Civil Lower, a portion of the Judicial Tests prescribed for the post of the Head Clerk of my Court that will fall vacant within a very short time consequent on the retirement of my Sheristadar on pension and the promotion of the present Head Clerk to the Sheristadar's place.

2. I consider the applicant is the most eligible candidate for the post of Head Clerk and is the only one in my department standing next in grade to that of the Head Clerk. He has put in nearly 25 years' service, is intelligent, hardworking, perfectly reliable and physically strong.
He has passed Precise Writing and Translation Higher, examinations necessary only for a higher appointment than that of a Head Clerk. He is acquainted with almost every department of work in the District Court and in my opinion is best fitted to fill the place of the Head Clerk. I feel sure he will command the respect of his subordinates as well as he has earned the approbation of his superiors. I have no hesitation in endorsing the remarks as to his qualifications contained in the various testimonials accompanying his application. Further by far better fitted, as he is in every other respect for the place of the Head Clerk, I do not think it desirable, if it can be helped, that a junior of his in grade should get a double promotion at a single stretch.

3. I am naturally disinclined to make recommendations for exemptions from even a portion of the tests prescribed, certainly after mature consideration, for the respective posts. But, in the case of the applicant, the interests of the public service, the long faithful work of the applicant, and the fact that he is the only one standing immediately below the Head Clerk have induced me to depart from my rule.

JUDICIAL
May it please your gracious honour to take the following few humble lines in to your kind consideration, and bring the same to the notice of the Government.

The Honourable
High Court, it appears, recommended to the Government on the recommendation of the District Judge, Godavery, that one P. Venkataramayya (a Brahmin) Translator of his Court for obtaining the sanction of the Government exempting him from passing the Civil Judicial Test, in order that he may be appointed as Head Clerk of his Court (District Court Godavery.) though there are nearly Ten competent and duly qualified clerks of longer service by passing the said Judicial Test, who are working in all the Civil Courts of the District, available.

This Venkatarama-yya (Translator) is a matriculate, and is capable of passing the said Test.

NOTES.

NOTES.

He does not seem to have rendered more meritorious services than others and there is no plausible ground for such a distinction. This can be quite settled by the High Court or the District Judge of the District Judge of a mahomedan Court.

This application is made to that the Government will be to give him some assistance in the fact of the time when he was in a position to be able to Subject.

Requesting exemption from the Civil Judicial test of P. Venkataramayya, Translator of the District Court of Godavari for employment as Head Clerk of that Court.

The Registrar of the High Court (Mr.J.T.Gillespie) forwards, for the orders of Government, a letter from the District Judge of Godavari (Diwan Bahadur M.O.Parthasarathy Aiyangar) in which the latter ~~very strongly~~ recommends that P. Venkataramayya, Translator^x of that Court may be permanently exempted from the Civil Judicial test with the view of his being promoted to the post of Head Clerk^x of the same Court.

2. The tests prescribed for Head Clerks in District Courts are:-

- (1) Civil Judicial Test;
- (2) Criminal Judicial Test, Lower grade; and
- (3) Translation Test, Lower grade.

3. P. Venkataramayya is a Matriculate and has passed the following special tests:-

- (1) Precis-writing;
- (2) Translation, Higher grade (and Lower grade) &
- (3) Criminal Judicial test, Lower grade.

He is 46 years old and has put in a total service of nearly 25 years. According to the District Judge, Venkataramayya is "intelligent, hard working, perfectly reliable and physically strong. He will command the respect of his subordinates^{and} has earned the approbation of his apparently pseudonymous, in

The D. J. does not say that there is no one who has passed the requisite tests ~~of~~ for the post.
 It seems to me unfair when Govt have laid down a test as a qualification for a certain post, & thereby stimulated several ~~of~~ of their employees to qualify for that post, to appoint an unqualified man, on any other grounds than that there is no one else competent.

I agree. These exceptions only create most inconvenient precedents & are hard upon men who have qualified.
