NOTES.

C. No. 2234 From the S. P. 9 No. 4424, dated 6. 12. 1909.

SUBJECT. Forwarding copy of a letter from Major Cornwall requesting permission to begin the work of revising Mc Nally's Sanitary Handbook for 2.

Major Cornwall reports that when he agreed to undertake the revision of Mc Nally's Sanitary Hand-book in September last he foresaw that his work would, for the next four months, give him sufficient leisure to do the revision. He observes that two months of this time has already elapsed and after two more his ordinary work will probably be too exacting to enable him to devote much time to the work of revision of the book and states that if he begins immediately, the bulk of the work can be done during the next two months.

2. The file on the subject has been separately submitted to the Secretary with a draft letter to the Govt of India soliciting their sanction to the payment of an honorarium of Rs 1,000 to Major Cornwall for his services. It is for consideration whether Major Cornwall may be permitted to begin the work before the sanction of the Govt of India is obtained to the payment of the honorarium. Art. 726 of the C. S. R. lays down that such sanction must be obtained "before the work is begun."

The file on the subject is linked below. There appears to be no objection to granting the permission to Major Cornwall in advance, the fact fact being mentioned in the letter to India.

~~Art. 72(c) C.S.R.~~

Art. 72(c) C.S.R. distinctly lays down that the sanction of the J.G.D. must be obtained before the work is begun. It seems therefore inadmissible to allow Major Cornwall to begin the work in anticipation of sanction. I submit that Dr. Bourne may be told that the J.G.D. are being addressed & that until their orders are received Major Cornwall cannot be permitted to begin the revision of the handbook.

Chf

Mr. G. P. S. J.

Dr. Cornwall may begin his revision but at his own risk. Tell Dr. Bourne D.C. how the matter stands & that probably India will sanction & that Dr. Cornwall may begin at his own risk, but that if India do not sanction - we cannot guarantee him anything.
