To Secretary

That Special tests requested for the part of Manager, Madras Sea Customs office are (1) ~~MADE~~ Sakt, Abkari & Customs tests (Customs) and (2) ~~MADE~~

T. Secretary

(i) B. Subbarao. Ag manager in the office of the Collector of Sea Customs

The Special tests required for the post of manager are (1) Test G - Customs (Higher) of the Salt, Abkar & Customs Tests and (2) Translation test - Lower grade.

B. Subbarao, the ag manager, has passed neither of these tests and was given temporary exemption by the Board of Rev for a period of one year. The period has expired, and as Subbarao has not passed the tests, the Board recommended (1) that he may be permanently exempted from passing Translation Lower and (2) that he may be given exemption for one year longer in respect of the Sea Customs Tests. As regard (1), the Board says that Subbarao is a graduate and has passed Translation Higher in Canarese, and that the nature of his duties as manager is such that a knowledge of Tamil or Telugu is unnecessary. Submitted that under these circumstances the exemption applied for may be supported in this Dept.

As regards Customs Test, under the revised rules sanctioned in G.O. No 1564, dt: 3rd June 08, the examination is held twice every year (once in Jan^y and then again in July) instead of only once as before. The Board, in recommending exemption for one year, presumably intends that he should be given ~~two~~ ^{two} Chances—once in the January Examination and again in the July Examination and its recommendation, may, it is submitted, be accepted.

2. Mr W. H. Homer. Preventive officer Madras Custom House. Pay Rs 50-5-75. Is a pensioned private of the 6th Dragoon guards, aged 32, and in G.O. No 595 dt: 14th August 08, was exempted from passing the upper Secondary Examination. He was at the same time given temporary exemption from passing the ~~the~~ Translation test - lower grade and Customs Test which tests have been prescribed for posts on Rs 50 and upwards in the Customs Department. The Board now recommends that Mr Homer may be permanently exempted from passing Translation Lower and given temporary exemption for another year in respect of Customs Test. Submitted that the Board's recommendation, So far as Translation test is concerned, may be supported in this Deptt. as the duties of the office are said to be such that a knowledge either of Telugu or of Tamil is not necessary. Similar exemption ^{has been} ~~was~~ granted in favour of another preventive officer - Mr Rogers. Ude G.O. No 222 dt. 22nd August 1906.

As regards Customs Test, as the exemption granted in G.O. No 595 dated 14th August 1908, is for one year, fresh exemption seems unnecessary. He can appear for the test in the January Examination & if he fails in that, in the examination for July 1909 also.

3 Mr G. Rogers Preventive Officer, Madras Sea Custom House - Pay Rs 50-5-75 - Is aged 29, holds a Second class Army Certificate of Education and was entertained in the Customs Deptt in 1906 as a preventive officer and was exempted from passing the Customs Test for a period of two years. - (vide

 The Customs Test is composed of two branches viz (1) Customs Law and (2) Rules under the Customs Act. Mr Rogers is said to have passed only in the latter and the Board recommends that he ~~may~~ may be exempted from passing in Branch (1) for one year longer.
 Submitted that the Board's recommendation may be supported in this Dept.
