ENCLOSURES.

Despatch—from the Government of India, Finance Department (Salaries, Establishments, etc.—Education).

To—His Majesty's Secretary of State for India.

Dated—Simla, the 22nd October 1908.

No.—312.

We have the honour to forward for Your Lordship's consideration a copy of the correspondence noted in the attached schedule of papers regarding the addition of an appointment to the Headmaster's branch of the Indian Educational Service, Madras, to provide for the headmastership of the High School at Mercara.

2. In 1892 the Chief Commissioner of Coorg recommended that the salary of the headmaster of the Mercara Central school, which is the most important educational institution in the province, should be raised to Rs. 500, and that on the occurrence of a vacancy the post should be filled by recruitment from England. The Government of Lord Lansdowne did not then consider it necessary to make any change, but they stated that the question of the pay of future incumbents should be left for consideration on the occurrence of a vacancy.

3. The Chief Commissioner of Coorg recently represented that locally recruited candidates have been tried as headmasters but have been found unsuitable, and that the interests of the school would be better served by the appointment of an English graduate as its headmaster. We accepted his views as to the need for an European headmaster, but we considered that the desired result was not likely to be attained either by attaching to the appointment a salary of Rs. 350 per mensem or by including it in the Madras Provincial Educational Service as proposed by him. We accordingly suggested for his consideration that the appointment should, like the headmasterships of some other high schools, be included in the Indian Educational Service and that an officer should be recruited for it in the usual way from England. The Chief Commissioner has cordially accepted our suggestion. We therefore recommend for Your Lordship's sanction that an appointment should be added to the cadre of the Indian Educational Service, Madras, on a salary of Rs. 500—50—750 a month. In the event of our recommendation being accepted, we would ask you to be so good as to select a candidate who possesses, in addition to the usual qualifications, some degree of aptness for and skill in athletics and games. The extra cost on account of the proposal will be Rs. 508-5-8 per mensem, which will form a charge against Coorg (Imperial) revenues.
