I have the honour to request that sanction may be obtained to the payment, with effect from 10th November 1908, of a conveyance allowance of Rs. 30 per mensem to Miss Rebekah McLeod, the newly appointed Superintendent of the Primary department of the Teachers' College, Saidapet. A similar allowance was drawn by the former Superintendent (Miss Gillingham) under G.O., No. 74, Educational, dated 9th February 1905, and the special circumstances of her case as set forth in my letter R. C. No. 8432/04, dated 24th October 1904, apply also to Miss McLeod. Provision for the charge has been made in the budget estimate for the current and next years.

Endorsement G.A. No. 43 (e)/9534, dated 15th December 1908.

Forwarded to Government.

2. Attention is invited to this office endorsement No. G. 913/8659, dated the 31st October 1904, on letter from the Director of Public Instruction No. 8432, dated the 24th October 1904.

3. The conveyance allowance at Rs. 30 per mensem sanctioned by the Government of India in Home Department letter No. 102, dated 31st January 1905, was personal to Miss Gillingham, and was granted as a special case. The sanction of that Government will therefore be required to the continuance of the allowance to her successor Miss R. McLeod.

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,

HOME DEPARTMENT.

Dated Fort St. George, the 26th January 1909.

SIR,

I am directed to address the Government of India on the subject of the grant of a conveyance allowance to Miss Rebekah McLeod, the present lady Superintendent of the Primary department of the Practising School attached to the Teachers' College, Saidapet.

2. A conveyance allowance of Rs. 30 per mensem was granted to Miss Gillingham, Miss McLeod's predecessor, under the sanction conveyed in Mr. Marris' letter No. 102, Education, dated 31st January 1905; and the special circumstances under which the grant of the allowance was recommended in the case of Miss Gillingham are set forth in Mr. Taylor's letter No. 759, Educational, dated 22nd December 1904. These circumstances remain unchanged and apply with equal force to Miss McLeod's case. I am therefore to request that the Government of India will be pleased to sanction the payment of the allowance of Rs. 30 per mensem to Miss McLeod so long as the present circumstances remain unchanged.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

A. BUTTERWORTH,
Ag. Secretary to Government.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., Nos. 47, 48, EDUCATIONAL,
DATED 26TH JANUARY 1909.

[SUBJECT.—Payment of a conveyance allowance of Rs. 30 per mensem to Miss McLeod, Superintendent of the Primary department of the Teachers' College, Saidapet.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 3rd December 1908, No. 7741.

The Director of Public Instruction requests that a conveyance allowance of Rs. 30 per mensem may be paid to Miss Rebekah McLeod, the newly appointed Superintendent of the Primary department of the Teachers' College, Saidapet. In paragraph 5 of her agreement with the Secretary of State her pay is fixed at Rs. 250 per mensem and under paragraph 6, she is to be provided with free quarters or granted a house-rent allowance of Rs. 25 per mensem. The agreement, however, does not provide for the grant of a conveyance allowance.

2. Miss Gillingham (Miss McLeod's predecessor) was with the approval of the Government of India given a conveyance allowance of Rs. 30 per mensem. The Director of Public Instruction observes that the special circumstances explained in his letter No. 8432, dated 24th October 1904, as existing in Miss Gillingham's case apply also to the case of Miss McLeod. These were—

(1) There was no house available in Saidapet and Miss Gillingham had to live in Madras and to drive out to Saidapet every day, the expenditure incurred by her on this account being Rs. 60 per mensem.

	RS.
* Pay	250
House-rent	25
Total	275
Deduct	60 cart hire.
Balance	215

(2) She was given to understand at the India Office that the Teachers' College was a residential college; and although she is granted a house-rent allowance of Rs. 25 per mensem it is very difficult for an English lady to live in Madras on Rs. 215 * a month.

3. The Accountant-General points out that the conveyance allowance sanctioned by the Government of India to Miss Gillingham was personal to her and was granted as a special case and that the sanction of that Government will therefore be required for the continuance of the allowance to Miss McLeod, Miss Gillingham's successor. It is for consideration whether a recommendation may be made to the Government of India to sanction the continuance of the allowance to Miss McLeod. Attention is invited to the Government of India's letter No. 102, dated 31st January 1905, printed on page 2 of G.O., No. 74, Educational, dated 9th February 1905, in which the grant of the conveyance allowance of Rs. 30 per mensem was sanctioned by that Government to Miss Gillingham as a special case.

4. It is submitted that the papers may first be sent u.o. to the Financial Department.

P.R.—5-1-09.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—8-1-09.

It will be noticed that in G.O., No. 74, Educational, dated 9th February 1905, it was said that the allowance would "be granted only so long as the present circumstances in Miss Gillingham's case remain unchanged." The meaning of this is a little ambiguous, but the circumstances are still the same and would seem to warrant addressing India.

C. A. SOUTER-9-1-09.

The circumstances have not changed. India may be addressed ?

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

The papers prior to G.O., No. 641, Educational, dated 7th September 1908, which relate to Miss McLeod's appointment have not been put up by Educational and it is therefore not possible to ascertain from this case whether anything was said, and if so what, in regard to quarters and carriage allowance before Miss McLeod's engagement. But India treated Miss Gillingham's case as special in the circumstances represented by this Government and they may naturally ask why this contingency as regards conveyance allowance was not provided for in engaging Miss McLeod if, as stated * in the draft letter, the circumstances attending Miss Gillingham's case remain unchanged and apply with equal force to Miss McLeod.

* The Director of Public Instruction says this.
I suppose it is correct.
