Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. A. G. BOURNE, D.Sc., F.R.S., C.I.E., Director of Public Instruction.

To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.

Dated—Madras, the 17th November 1908.

No.—Ref. on Cur. No. 5093.

The Principal, Law College, reports that it is highly desirable that the college should be provided with electric fans as the old-fashioned punkahs existing at present are especially ineffective in the lecture halls as they have to be pulled from long distances and round corners. He states that the installation at the High Court Buildings would afford facility for the introduction of fans in the college and submits the accompanying plans and estimates. The expenditure at present incurred by the college on account of punkahs is Rs. 200 per annum but the proposed installation would involve an initial expenditure of Rs. 6,160 for fitting it up and an annual expenditure of Rs. 538 for its maintenance. The introduction of these fans may add to the convenience of the staff but considering that the staff of the college comprises only four members, excluding the clerk and the librarian and that the college is closed for the most part of the hot weather, I am doubtful whether this large expenditure would be justifiable.

In these circumstances, I have the honour to solicit the orders of Government on the subject.

Order—No. 56, Educational, dated 27th January 1909.

The Government agree with the Director of Public Instruction that the provision of electric fans for the Law College, Madras, is not required and that the estimated expenditure on this account is not justifiable.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 56, EDUCATIONAL,
DATED 27TH JANUARY 1909.

[SUBJECT.—Provision of electric lights and fans to the Law College, Madras.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 17th November 1908, No. 5093.

The Director of Public Instruction submits, for the orders of Government, a scheme for providing electric fans for the Law College, Madras. The Principal of the College states that the installation at the High Court buildings would afford facility for the introduction of fans in the college.

2. The present expenditure on account of punkah-pulling is Rs. 200 per annum. But the proposed installation is estimated to involve an initial expenditure of Rupees 6,160 and an annual expenditure of Rs. 538 for its maintenance. Considering that

* Excluding the clerk and the librarian. the staff of the college comprises only four members * and that the college is closed for the most part of the hot weather, Dr. Bourne is doubtful whether this large expenditure would be justifiable.

3. The question of providing the Presidency College with electric fans and lights is separately under the consideration of Government. The file was forwarded to the Public Works Department on 26th August 1908 with this department u.o. No. 1370-1, dated 26th August 1908. It is for consideration whether this file may be over pending the issue of orders in the case of the Presidency College.

Dr. Bourne's opinion that the large expenditure proposed on the provision of electric fans is not justifiable seems to be sound and may be accepted.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—24-11-08.

What are the hours of work in the Law College?

C. A. SOUTER—24-11-08.

Please see the time-table of the Law College for the autumn term of 1906 printed on page 5 of G.O., No. 63, Educational, dated 7th February 1907. No later time-table is available in the office, and a time-table is not in the calendar of the Law College. May a copy of the time-table at present in force be called for?

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—24-11-08.

Yes please.

C. A. SOUTER—24-11-08.

[Memorandum No. 2470-1, dated 25th November 1908.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 7th December 1908, No. 5093.

The Director of Public Instruction submits copies of the time-table of the Law College for the autumn terms of 1908, from which it will be observed that the working hours of the college are from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. generally, extending to 5 P.M. also on two days.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—8-12-08.

The present cost of punkah-pullers is only Rs. 200 per annum and the cost of introducing fans seems prohibitive. Dr. Bourne's opinion seems the correct one. On the other hand it seems reasonable to think that in a very short time few buildings of any size will be without electric fans and it may eventually be decided to let the Law College have them. If this is so, it might be just as well to sanction the proposal now.

C. A. SOUTER—9-12-08.

The expenditure seems hardly justifiable and might be better spent on other objects.

The only reason that can justify the expenditure is the sentimental one that the Law College should not be behind the times as regards appliances which conduce to comfort. The European staff of the college is very restricted.

2. There is also the possible objection that the old-fashioned punkahs in lecture halls may interfere with sound, and that the lecturer's voice may not reach the extreme end of the room, if the punkahs remain; but that is nothing new.

H. D. TAYLOR—10-12-08.

I agree with the Director of Public Instruction that the provision of electric fans is not required nor the estimated expenditure justified.

REPORT

to accompany the plan and estimate for ELECTRIC INSTALLA-TION, LAW COLLEGE, MADRAS.

Amount of Estimate:- Rs. 6160/-

Estimate "A" provides for an installation of Electric lights and fans at the Law College, Madras.

Electricity will be obtained from the Madras Electric Supply Corporation, Ltd. Underground mains will be run from the Madras Electric Supply Corporation distribution pillar fixed at the junction of the China Bazaar Road and Broadway, to the meter board fixed in the Office room, ground floor.

The plans showing the proposed positions and number of lights and fans have been prepared in consultation with the Principal. Provision has been made for wiring alone for 21 fans and 4 lights in 2 Lecture, 2 Class rooms and 1 spare room as these rooms are not used at present, but will be required in the near future.

Estimate "B" provides for the maintenance charges in connection with the proposed installation. The working hours have been obtained from the Principal, and the probable unit consumption calculated accordingly. No provision is made for staff as the Law College peons can clean the shades and the fan meters and if trained for a short time, can overhaul the fans and renew the lamps &c.
if necessary.

Under repairs and renewals provision is made for petty repairs to the installation and renewals of fan brushes, lamps, &c. The provision under "Repairs and Renewals" is merely a provisional charge and the expenditure under this sub-head will probably be very small.
