The Secretary to Government,
Educational Department,
Fort St. George.

Sir,

We have the honor to hand you a copy of the latest issue of our Sanskrit Journal the "Vedanta Grandharatnamala" which is under publication since July 1907.

The Journal, while having for its object the dissemination of unpublished ancient manuscripts on Hindu Religious Philosophy, aims also at a revival of general interest in Sanskrit literature, and in the latter direction we venture to think it would be of interest to certain departments of the Public Service.

We shall be obliged, therefore, if you will kindly bring this Journal to the favourable notice of Government and obtain for us a share of the Government's patronage towards the publishing world by subscribing for such number of copies as may be found requisite.

We have the honor to be, Sir,
Your most obedient servants,

R. Venkateshwar & Co.

A Sanskrit Journal known as
"Vedanta Granthamala"
