From (Name) J.H. Stone, Esquire, M.A.

To the Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit the enclosed letter received from M.R.Ry T. Rajagopalachariyar, Second Assistant Professor, Law College, Madras, and to request orders as to whether G.O. No. 958 Public dated 23rd September 1902 operates in his case. I am inclined to think that it does, because he is a "public servant" even though the tenure of his office is more or less temporary. But his colleague M.R.Ry P.R. Ganapati Aiyar has, with the permission of Government granted in their order No. 61 Educational dated 2nd February 1906, been the Sub-Editor of the Law Journal, Madras, on a salary of Rs 75 per mensem. Any distinction made in the case of M.R.Ry Rajagopalachari would seem to be a little invidious.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

C. Krishnaswami

C. No. 58 From the D.P.I. No. 8314, dated 9-1-1909.

SUBJECT. Permission to mRy. J. Rajagopalachari
2nd Assistant Professor, Law College, Madras, to accept the Directorship of the Mylapore Hindu Permanent Fund, Ltd.

The D.P.I. submits an application from mRy. J. Rajagopalachari, 2nd Assistant Professor, (pay Rs 250 p.m.) of the Law College, Madras, requesting that he may be permitted to accept the Directorship of the "Mylapore Hindu Permanent Fund, Limited". Rajagopalachari states that the duties connected with the Directorship are slight, confined to out-of-College hours, that they will not interfere with his work in the College and that the remuneration attached to the place is variable the maximum not being likely to exceed Rs 500 per annum.

vide para. 2 of the G.O. } A. report

2. In G.O. 958 Puhdy 23-9-02 the Govt held that it was undesirable that a public servant should accept paid employment of any kind even when such employment consisted of work done for a mutual benefit society, and further stated that no sanction should be accorded for the acceptance of remuneration in such cases. The D.P.I. states that he is inclined to think that the above G.O. operates in Rajagopalachari's case, because he is a "public servant" even though the tenure of his office is more or less temporary. The Director observes that mRy. P. R. Ganapati Aiyar, the 1st Assistant Professor of the College, has been permitted to accept the Editorship of the Madras Law Journal.

menem and states that any distinction made in the Case of Rajagopalachariar would seem to be a little invidious.

3. It is submitted that the present Case appears to be similar to that of Ganapathi Aiyar, ^{the 1st Assistant Lecturer,} for the following reasons:—

(1) Both are not 'full-time' public servants, inasmuch as they are allowed to take up private practice on the strict understanding that it in no way interferes with College duties.

(2) Their appointments are not pensionable, and (3) The appointments are subject to a term's notice on either side.

Attention is, however, solicited to His remarks on page 10 of G.O. 61 Edl d. 2-2-06 & to the note of the Financial Dept on pages 12 & 13 of do.

4. In these circumstances it is for consideration whether the permission applied for may be granted.

Submit that permission may be granted so long as the work does not interfere with the man's duties in the Law College. The ordinary rules do not apply to part-time public servants.
