The I.G. of Police (Mr. D. W. G. Cowie) requests that S. Raghavendra Rao may be permanently exempted from the Criminal Judicial test, Lower Grade, for employment as an Inspector of Police in the Criminal Investigation Dept.

2. Police Inspectors (except Reserve Inspectors) are required to pass (1) the Criminal Judicial test, Lower Grade, and (2) the departmental test in Police Orders and Practice.

Raghavendra Rao has passed the latter test and also the Precise writing test which is no longer required for the post. Mr. Cowie states that Raghavendra Rao is 51 years of age and has put in a service of 29 years in the department and has acted as an Inspector on several occasions. Mr. Jawett, the I.G. adds, has spoken highly of his work.

3. In Col. 3 of the application the pay of an Inspector of Police is stated to be Rs 70 - Rs 200. But it is not stated what pay is proposed to be given to Raghavendra Rao, nor is it stated what Raghavendra Rao's present appointment is and on what pay. It is for consideration whether the I.G. may be asked to furnish this information before the file is sent to the Judicial Department, for remarks, as to whether the I.L.'s recommendation may be accepted.

It is not stated what part this war has held during his 29 years' service. He however possesses the educational qualifications requisite for an Inspector and must be too old to pass any more Exams. Mr. Coorie's recommendation seems, however, to be on personal grounds which are usually inadmissible.
