NOTES.

C. No. 269 From the D.P.I. No. 8494, dated 2-2-1909.

Art 73 of the C.A.C.

The draft order is it is submitted all right.
2. Contingent charges are generally divided into two classes - (a) Contract Contingent charges & (b) countersigned contingent charges. But under Article 73 of the C.A.C.
the Local Govt may divide the contingent charges into other classes if it thinks fit, provided that any expenditure, not coming under contract contingent charges, not regulated by a fixed scale laid down by competent authority, must receive either previous sanction or must be dealt with under the rules relating to counter signed contingent charges. It will be seen from the portion underlined above that a fixed scale of contingent allowance must be laid down by a competent authority. As the D.P.I. has not been authorised to lay down such a scale, it must ^{in this case} be sanctioned by the Govt.

3. It will also be observed that under Article 75 of the C.A.C. it is for the Local Govt to define the nature and limit of charges which may be incurred without previous sanction. Expenditure covered by a fixed contingent allowance does not require previous sanction.
