Mr. H. J. Allen, Professor of History, Presidency College applies for furlough for five months and nineteen days in continuation of the ensuing summer vacation of the College. The College vacation begins on the 3rd May 1909 and ~~ends~~ ^{the College reopens} on the 5th July 1909. The leave applied for is to commence on the 5th July 1909 and ~~extend up to~~ ^{will extend up to} the 24th December 1909, the date of commencement of the Christmas holidays. Mr. Allen thus proposes to combine the Christmas vacation of 1909-1910 also with his furlough.

2. The Accountant General states that Mr. Allen may be permitted to have the benefit of the Christmas holidays from the 24th December 1909, provided the conditions of article 220 of the S.P. are fulfilled - viz. the return of Mr. Allen does not involve

(1) the immediate transfer of an officer from or to another station or the loss of his appointment by an officer appointed temporarily to the service

(2) the taking over of money.

3. Mr. Allen's return from leave will not involve the taking over of charge of any money, being only a Professor. His return will, however, involve the loss of his appointment by the officer who may be temporarily appointed to act for him.

4. Mr. Allen's application for leave was registered in G.O. N^o. 590 Educational dated 10th August 1908; and in Despatch N^o. 5 Educational dated 10th August 1908 the Secretary of State was requested to select and send out a person to act for Mr. Allen for eight months.

5. It is for consideration whether the leave for 5 months and 19 days applied for by Mr. Allen may be granted and whether he may be allowed to affix the Christmas holidays of 1909-10 to his leave.

T.K.
2-3-09

Mr. Allen at first said that he proposed to apply for furlough for a period of nine to ten months from March 1909, and in Desp. N^o. 5, dated 10th August 1908, the Govt. informed the Secretary of State that Mr. Allen intended to go on leave for about eight months, in combination with the Summer Vacation of the College & requested him to select a locum tenens for this period. The Secretary of State has in a communication, which is separately dealt with, expressed his willingness to offer the temporary post of Professor & Lecturer.

History, Presidency College, to Mr. Dodwell of the Madras Pachayappa's College. If Mr. Allen is permitted to affix ~~his leave~~ the Christmas holidays to his leave, then Mr. Dodwell's ^{temporary} appointment as acting Professor of History, Presidency College, will cease on the 24th December 1909, instead of on 2nd January 1910, as would otherwise be the case. It will not thus be possible to fulfil the Conditions of Art. 220 of the C.S.D., and ~~it~~ it does not appear that Mr. Allen may be permitted to affix the Christmas holidays to his leave. He must therefore return to duty on the 23rd December 1909; and his leave will then ^{have to} be for 5 months & 18 days, instead of for 5 months & 9 days as asked for by Mr. Allen.

The note is correct. The only way by which Mr. Allen could get the Benefit of the Christmas holidays would be to arrange for his Dadwell's temporary appointment to cease on the morning of the 23rd Dec, while Mr Allen's leave (if sanctioned for 5 weeks & 19 days) would not expire till the afternoon of the 23rd. His return would then technically not cause Mr Dadwell to lose his appointment & he could have the benefit of a 220.
