Station Madras, Dated the 10 February 1909.

From (Name) J.H. Stone, Esquire, M.A.,

(Designation) Ag: Director of Public Instruction,

Madras

To the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.

Sir,

A

In G.O. No. 636 Mis. Educational dated 5th September 1908, Sergeant Cumine, Band Instructor of the Reformatory School, Chingleput, was permitted to perform the duties of the Band Instructor in the Civil Orphan Asylum, Madras, in addition to his own duties for a period of three months. The Honorary Secretary to the Asylum now requests that the arrangement may be allowed to continue for an indefinite period on the usual terms of notice on either side. The request is supported by the Superintendent, Reformatory School, who apparently considers that the extra work has not interfered with Sergeant Cumine's duties in the school. But under article 74 /c/ of the Civil Service Regulations, the local Government can sanction the proposal only for an aggregate period not exceeding 16 $\frac{2}{3}$ months during which he will have earned an extra remuneration of Rs 500 at the rate of Rs 30 per mensem. In these circumstances, I beg to recommend that the permission granted in the order quoted above be extended for a further period of one year^{only}. I am informing the Superintendent accordingly^{so} that the Directors of 4

the Asylum may make timely arrangements for relieving Sergeant Cumine of the additional work undertaken by him.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

NOTES.

C. No. 264 From the S. P. D. No. 116, dated 10th Feb 1909.

SUBJECT.

Permission to Sergeant Cumine, Band Instructor, Reformatory School, Chingleput, to do the duties of the Band Instructor in the Civil Orphan Asylum, Madras for a further period of one year, in addition to his own duties.

In G.O. No. 636 Educational, dated 5th September 1908, Mr. Cumine, Band Instructor of the Reformatory School, Chingleput, was permitted to perform in addition to his own ~~duties~~^{work}, the duties of Band Instructor in the Civil Orphan Asylum, Madras, which is a private institution under the management of a Committee. Mr. Cumine was to receive a remuneration of Rs 30 per mensem for such employment and the above arrangement was to continue for a period of three months. It was also stated that if it was proposed to continue the arrangement on the expiry of the above period of three months, the further sanction of Government should be obtained.

2. The Honorary Secretary of the Civil Orphan Asylum requests, and the request is supported by the Superintendent, Reformatory School, that the arrangement sanctioned in G.O. No. 636 Educational dated 5th September 1908 may be allowed to continue for an indefinite period on the usual terms of notice on either side'. But as under article 74(c) of the Civil Service Regulations, the Local Government can sanction the proposal only for an aggregate period not exceeding $16\frac{2}{3}$ months during which he will have earned an extra remuneration of Rs 500 at the rate of Rs 30 per mensem, the ~~Director~~ ^(Mr. Stone) D.P.D. recommends that the sanction may be accorded to the continuance of the arrangement for a period of one year.

3. In his note dated 15th August 1908 on page 7 of G.O. No. 636 Educational, dated 5th September 1908, the Honble Mr. Forbes observed as follows:—

"I do not see any objection to the arrangement. The Band Master is not the whole day at Chingleput: and he is not in charge of the boys."

4. There appears to be no objection to the continuance of the arrangement and it is for consideration whether the D.P.D.'s recommendation that the arrangement should continue for another year may be accepted.

5. The grant of remuneration for the work of the kind ~~which is~~ under reference is governed by the provisions of article 74 of the Civil Service Regulations and with regard to the grant of fees to officers of the Educational ~~Department~~ service for tuition work, the Government of India have observed that "as clause (c) of the above

" article provides only for the cases in which
 " a single payment is made, its provisions should be interpreted as admitting of the sums therein mentioned being sanctioned by the head of the department or the local Government respectively, as remuneration for private tuition extending over either the period of one scholastic term or one long vacation" - Vide para. 3 of the Govt. of India Resolution on page 2 of G.O. N. 542 Educational dated 14th August 1906.

6. Following the above principle, it appears that sanction may be accorded for the continuance of the arrangement for a further period of one year as recommended by the D.P.I., the Sanction being renewed at the end of that period, if considered necessary.

24.2.09 The D.P.I. says that he is informing the Superintendent of the Reformatory School that the present arrangement will be continued for one year only, so that the Directors of the Asylum may make timely arrangements to relieve Mr. Cumine of the additional duties.

It seems to be unnecessary to send the draft order to the Financial Department for acceptance. In their note on page 9 of G.O. No. 636 Ed. dated 5th September 1908, the Financial Dept. have agreed to the principle of the arrangement, and the question now raised is only in regard to the continuance of the arrangement. The draft may, it is submitted, issue.
