To The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.

Sir,

I am desired to transfer to you the enclosed petition dated the 9th March 1909 from T. S. Mahalingam Iyer, Shepperumanellore, Tanjore District.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

His Excellency The Hon.

Sir Arthur Lawley, K.C.M.G., G.C.S.I.,

Coor House, Madras

May it please your Excellency,

1. I am a student who am at present in the most critical circumstances. I had applied for the matric since the year 1906 & my third & last expedition ended in a complete and thorough failure.
2. My knowledge in the English is a little above the average & my flaw is in mathematics. I had been the first boy in Paraphrases composition, Indian History & Geography, & Vernacular subject during the selection Examination of 1907.
3. I am of a decent birth and a middle class man & my poor father has spent for me almost all he possessed. I dislike all kind of desk work & am of an adventurous spirit. My taste is to join the Police department & serve as a sub-inspector. Here a matric pass is required. My testimonials would very well show that my general attainments are very fair. I have got no other recommendations excepting my personality.

4 If your excellency desires a proof of my knowledge I shall ask the foremost gentleman of this district Rao Bahadur S. Appu sastri, avergal, to send the mark register to the august presence of your Excellency. He has himself given me a certificate of good conduct. The copies of my testimonials are herewith appended.

5. I am bold enough to say that royal favour must shine in every cottage to demand gratitude. Up to this time none of my family - though it is numerically strong - have had the royal service. It is the duty of the benign government to put their food into the mouths of all her children. If a single individual of a big family be taken into service the whole group will no doubt feel the gratitude ^{take} it the foremost holy duty to thank ~~the~~ the benevolent hands who blessed their kinsman.

6. I have completed my 20th year by the last november. Though young I feel myself dejected. I am a burden to my father & his words pierce me through & through. My feelings are now much wounded & I now feel myself as one on a bed of thorns. I feel myself more & more desperate which is the necessary outcome to me in my circumstances. My pen falters & I find no adequate language to represent my feelings.

I have lost my mother when I was nine & I find in your excellencies, a father & a mother & this thought emboldened me to crave your excellency to give me exemption, though a special favour, & take me as a Sub-Inspector. For this act of kindness & favour, I shall ever pray for the health & prosperity of your excellency that favours,

Your Excellency's

Most-obedient & humble servant

Most Honoured Sir,

I am a student who am at present in the most critical circumstances. I had applied for the Matric since the year 1906 and my third and last expedition ended in a complete and thorough failure.

2. My knowledge in the English subject is a little above the average and my flaw is in Mathematics. I had been the first boy in Paraphrase and

3. I am of a decent birth and a middle-class man and my poor father has spent for me all he possessed. I dislike all kinds of desk work and am of an adventurous spirit. My taste is to join the Police department and serve there as a sub-Inspector. There a matric pass is required. My conduct certificates would very well show that my general attainments are very fair. My personality best recommends me to the Police dept.

4. If you desire a proof of my my knowledge I shall ^{ask} the foremost gentleman of the presidency (Mr R. Rao Bahadur S. Appu Sastri averaj) to send the mark register to your august presence. He has himself given me a certificate of good conduct. The copies of my testimonials have been appended herewith.

5. I am bold enough to say that royal favour must shine in every cottage to demand gratitude. Up to this time none of my family - it is no doubt numerically strong - have had the Government service. It is the duty of the benign Government falters and I find no adequate language to represent my feelings.

7. I have got every requisite excepting the matric pass to be taken for the Sub. Inspector's class. My only hope now is is to appeal to your grace to grant me exemption. It will give special colour and unique flavour to your grand regime.

 I shall thank you as my only deliverer if you favour me with an exemption.

I beg to remain Sir,

Your most obedient & humble
 servant
