I
With reference to G.O. No. 549 Mis. Educational, dated 18th July 1908 sanctioning the retention in service until 31st December 1908 of M.R. Ry S. Mangesha Rau, Professor of Philosophy, Presidency College, I have the honour to state that, under article 264 of the Civil Service Regulations, the Accountant General has ordered the recovery of the pay drawn by him for the period from the 22nd to 31st December 1908. He did not, however, enjoy the vacation; but, as reported by the Principal, he was engaged in valuing the answer papers of the college annual examinations, the mark statements connected with which were submitted by him on the 18th January. I have the honour to request, therefore, that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government to his being considered to have been SUBJECT.

Pay for M.R.Ry. S. Mangesha Rao, Professor of Philosophy, Presidency College, for the Christmas Vacation of 1908.

In G.O.No.549 Edl., dated 18th July 1908, the retention in service of M.R.Ry. S. Mangesha Rao, Professor of Philosophy, Presidency College, up to the 31st december 1908, was sanctioned. He accordingly drew pay for the whole of December 1908.

2. ~~But under~~ Article 264 of the Civil service Regulations ^{Says that} "Save when Privilege leave or vacation is "combined with other leave under the rules, the right "to receive privilege leave or vacation allowances is "contingent (except in the case of death) upon the "return of an officer to duty on the expiry of such
"leave or vacation". Under this rule, Mr. Mangesha Rao, who retired and did not return to duty on the expiry of the Christmas vacation, was not entitled to any pay for the period of such vacation, that is, from the 22nd to 31st december 1908. The Accountant General has therefore ordered the recovery of the pay drawn by Mr. Mangesha Rao for the period of the Christmas vacation from the 22nd to 31st December 1908.

3. The D.P.I. states that Mr. Mangesha Rao did not enjoy the vacation, but was engaged in valuing the answer papers of the College annual examinations; the mark statements connected with which were submitted by him on the 18th January 1909. The Director therefore requests that Mr. Mangesha Rao may be considered to have been on duty from the 22nd to 31st December 1908, so as to enable the Accountant-General to withdraw his objection.

4. The Accountant-General states that under Article 264 of the Civil Service Regulations Mr. Mangesha Rao is not entitled to pay from 22nd to 31st December 1908 and that retirement in his case has effect from the commencement of the vacation. ~~He however observes~~ that the grant of a honorarium for the work done by Mr. Mangesha Rao during the period is within the sanctioning powers of Government.

5. It is for consideration whether as suggested by the Accountant-General, the payment to Mr. Mangesha Rao of the amount of the pay for the number of days in question, ^{namely from 22nd to 31st December} may be sanctioned in the form of a honorarium. Attention is invited to letter No. 566 Public, dated 11th February 1909 from the Government of India on page 4 of G.O. No. 125, Public, dated 23rd February 1909, wherein that Government have in the case of Mr. Thurston sanctioned the payment to him of the amount of pay from 9th to 31st March 1909 in the form of a honorarium.

The Case of Mr. Thurston does not appear to be an exact precedent. If it is decided to grant a honorarium to Mr. Mangesha Rao, equal to his salary for the period from 22nd to 31st December 1908 the amount of the honorarium will be Rs 193-8-9.

Rec. No. 680 dated 19th February 1909, on the subject of ~~pay~~ ^{for} S. Mangesha Rao for the period from 22nd to 31st December 1908, I am directed to enquire what was the latest date within which Mangesha Rao should have submitted his marks, and why he was employed in valuing the answer papers of the College annual examination after his retirement. It is presumed that Mangesha Rao received no special remuneration for this work.

My dear Butterworth,

With reference to D.O. No. 395-1 of the 16th instant, I am informed that according to the staff order of the Principal, Presidency College, the Professors were required to submit the annual examination results not later than the 18th January. Mangesha Rau received no special remuneration for the work and might of course have sent in his results up to date together with the unfinished work before retirement. All the Professors had such work and I gather that no special instructions were issued in Mangesha Rau's case.

Yours sincerely,

A. G. Sauras

There is no case whatever for giving him pay. Mangesha Rao must have known the service rules, which every RLS clerk has at his 'fingers' ends. Doubtless a dodge? The office state the pay for the week, but omit to state the amt. of pension which he will draw for the period?

G.F.

The draft order placed below is for approval.
2. With reference to the Am's remarks at A above, it is submitted that the amount of pension which Mangesha Rao will draw for for the period from the 22nd to 31st December 1908. Cannot be given with any degree of accuracy. The pension application of Mangesha Rao has not yet been received. He was drawing Rs 600 pm. at the time of his retirement, and had been promoted to that grade on 5th April 1906. He did not serve for the full period of three years in the Rs 600 grade to be eligible for a half pension on this salary; but it may be assumed that he will get a pension of nearly Rs 300. On this assumption Mangesha Rao's pension for the period from 22nd to 31st December 1908, will be about one half of the pay for the period (Rs 193-8-9) ^{about} or Rs 96-12-4.
