notes at A on page 5 supra, attention is solicited to Article 144 of the Civil Service Regulations, as recently revised, which runs

"An officer without a substantive appointment on a permanent establishment, officiating in an appointment, the pay of which is not less than Rs.100, is entitled to an acting allowance of half the pay, or, if the pay of the appointment is progressive, half the minimum pay of the appointment, but in special cases, the allowance may, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, be increased to an amount not exceeding the full pay of the appointment".

2. Under the above article, the Local Government may sanction an allowance not exceeding the full pay of the appointment, but a report of the circumstances of each case in which sanction is accorded by the Local government under this Article should be made through the Audit Officer to the Government of India, at the beginning of each year.

3. As regards the Secretary's and H.M's remarks at B on page 5, a draft order is submitted informing the Accountant-General and the Director of Public Instruction that the acting appointment of Mr. Odgers as Principal of the Law College will terminate with the beginning of the summer vacation, that is ^{from} the 23rd April 1909.

The pay attached to the post of Principal of the Law College is Rs 1000-25.
The present pay of Rs 1500 is personal to Mr. Nelson.
1250. If a successor to Mr. Nelson were permanently appointed, he would be entitled to draw at the beginning a salary of Rs 1000, which will then be the "full pay" of the appointment. There appears to be no objection to offering a pay of Rs 750 p.m. to the locum tenens of Mr. Nelson, having regard to Art. 144 of the Civil Service Regulations and which the Local Govt. may sanction an allowance not exceeding the full pay of the appointment, in this case, Rs 1000.
