NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 251, EDUCATIONAL,
DATED 29TH APRIL 1909.

[SUBJECT.—Alterations in the Public Service and Special Test notifications in regard to the Civil Judicial Test.]

From the Commissioner for Government Examinations, dated 7th April 1909, No. 78-2D.

In G.O., No. 170, Educational, dated 19th March 1909, the Government agreed with the High Court that the Code of Civil Procedure which is prescribed as one of the subjects for the Civil Judicial Test must be limited to the Civil Procedure Code in force, i.e., Act V of 1908 and that the Examination in the Civil Rules of Practice should for the present be confined to the schedules appended thereto. The Government also directed that the Provincial Insolvency Act III of 1907 should be added to the curriculum for the Civil Judicial Test, but that the District Registrars need not be required to pass in that subject. The Commissioner for Government Examinations was requested to submit a draft of the alterations rendered necessary by the above orders in the Public Service and Special Test notifications.

2. The Commissioner accordingly forwards a draft of the alterations for approval of Government. The draft has been checked and is correct. A few verbal alterations have been made in the Director of Public Instruction's draft.

3. A draft order is placed below which may issue with the concurrence of the Judicial Department.

A. BUTTERWORTH—29-4-09.

[G.O., No. 251, Educational, dated 29th April 1909.]

The Secretary has corrected "and" into "or" in the last line of the draft notification. A similar alteration may also be made in line 5 of the notification relating to the Public Service notification and the words "or in" may be substituted for "and".

A proof of the draft notification as so amended is submitted and its return by return of post is requested for gazetting the alterations in next Tuesday's Gazette.

C.R.V.—1-5-09.

The notification may issue as revised. Let it go into next Gazette.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b¹) For rules regarding printing of notes, see the rules in G.O., No. 1220, Public, dated 30th November 1900.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Deputy Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Deputy Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, but only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
