GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

Letter—from J. F. GRAHAM, Esq., I.C.S., Officiating Accountant-General, Madras.
To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.
Dated—the 26th May 1909.
No.—T. M. 24-2/2522.

I have the honour to invite your attention to articles 160-A, 203-A, 411 and 1138-A of the Civil Service Regulations as amended by the 423rd list of corrections, dated 15th February 1909, and to state that the rules as they stood before this amendment contained certain general concessions to teachers undergoing training and that no special sanction was consequently necessary to give effect to these concessions in any particular case. But under the amended rules the power of granting the concessions is vested in the local Government and it appears from the wording of the amended articles that each case should hereafter be dealt with by Government on its own merits. I request therefore that the rules on the subject in the Madras Educational Rules may be revised accordingly.

Order—No. 352, Educational, dated 15th June 1909.

The Accountant-General's letter will be communicated to the Director of Public Instruction with the request that steps may be taken at an early date to amend the Educational Rules in accordance with the revised articles of the Civil Service Regulations referred to by the Accountant-General.

L. M. WYNCH,
Ag. Secretary to Government.

To the Director of Public Instruction,
Accountant-General.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 352, EDUCATIONAL,
DATED 15TH JUNE 1909.

[SUBJECT.—Alterations in the Madras Educational Rules—Concessions to teachers under training.]

From the Accountant-General, No. T. M. 24-2/2522, dated 26th May 1909.

The Accountant-General states that articles 160-A, 203-A, 411 and 1138-A of the Civil Service Regulations have been amended and requests that the rules in the Madras Educational Rules may be revised in accordance with the amended rules of the Civil Service Regulations.

2. Articles 160-A, 203-A, 411 and 1138-A of the Civil Service Regulations stood formerly as follows :—

160A. The time spent by teachers in pensionable Government service undergoing a course of instruction at any training school or college in the Madras and Bombay Presidencies, Bengal, the United Provinces, Punjab, Burma and the Central Provinces counts towards increments of pay.

203A. The time spent by teachers in pensionable Government service undergoing a course of instruction at any training school or college in the Madras and Bombay Presidencies, Bengal, the United Provinces, Punjab, Burma and the Central Provinces does not count as service for leave but does not cancel any leave previously earned.

411. The following subordinates in pensionable Government service count as service for pension the time spent in undergoing a course of instruction at the training institutions named :—

Subordinates.	Training Institutions.
1. Teachers in the Madras and Bombay Presidencies, Bengal, United Provinces, Punjab, Burma and the Central Provinces.	Any training School or College.
2. All Subordinates in the Madras and Bombay Presidencies.	Any Normal and Agricultural School or College.
3. Members of the Subordinate Forest Service.	Imperial Forest School, Dehra Dun.
4. Compounders in the Punjab.	Medical College, Lahore.*

* Count a period not exceeding one year.

1138A. Teachers in pensionable Government service who are selected to undergo a course of instruction at any training school or college in the Madras and Bombay Presidencies, Bengal, the United Provinces, Punjab, Burma and the Central Provinces may be granted travelling allowance of their classes for the journeys to and from the training institution.

3. As now amended by the Government of India, they read :—

160A. A Local Government may at its discretion decide, in the case of an officer who is selected to undergo a course of training in a school, college, or other institution, whether the time spent in training shall count as service qualifying for increments of pay.

203A. A Local Government may at its discretion decide, in the case of a subordinate officer who is selected to undergo a course of training at a school, college, or other institution, whether the time spent in training shall count as service qualifying for leave; and also whether or not such time shall be regarded as an interruption entailing forfeiture of leave already taken.

411. A Local Government may at its discretion decide, in the case of an officer (including a person in training for, but not actually appointed to, Government service), who is selected to undergo a course of training at any school, college, or other institution, whether the time spent in training shall count as service qualifying for pension.

1138A. A Local Government may at its discretion decide, in the case of an officer including a student not already in Government service, who is selected to undergo a course of training at any school, college, or other institution, whether any, and if so what travelling allowance, should be allowed for journeys to and from the training institution either on joining or leaving such institution at the beginning or termination of the period of training or on the occasion of holidays and vacations.

in rules 122 (3) and 123 of the Madras Educational Rules and no special sanction of Government is necessary to their application to any particular case. But the articles as now amended vest the power of granting the concessions in the Local Government and the Accountant-General states that from the wording of the amended articles it appears that each case should hereafter be dealt with by Government on its own merits. He therefore requests that the rules on the subject in the Madras Educational Rules may be revised accordingly.

5. The Accountant-General seems to be right and the Director of Public Instruction may be requested to take steps to amend the Educational Rules.
