Trichinopoly.

Madam,

I beg to inform you that the present accommodation of the Thanaba Mudaliar St. Girls' School is, as you already know, very unsuitable, and that the R.C. Madura Mission have resolved, if possible, to buy a better house for it in the same quarter of the town.

After more than a year of endeavour to find a suitable place, we have at last found a house in the same street, which may be altered to suit our purpose. The price of the house is Rs 12500.

We intend applying for a grant, but cannot now send in an application in proper form. As long as we are not in possession of the house, it is impossible for us to submit the title deeds, plans, estimates and other informations required by the department. This house must be bought by a third person, without mention of the purpose for which it is intended, and at a time auspicious in the opinion of the actual owner for business transactions. To reveal our purpose, or to delay the purchase would be to lose the opportunity, as happened last year when we were making similar endeavours to buy a house for this school.

I therefore, request you Madame, to obtain for us, in this special case of very peculiar circumstances, exemption from submitting beforehand title deeds, plans, estimates, &c. and the permission to buy at once. We shall later on submit all the informations required by the department, and apply for a grant of about one third of the total expense.

The Madura Mission can dispose of only two thirds of the sum required for this school. If they have no grounded hope that the grant will come in course of time, they must let this opportunity of buying a school house go by.

I must also call your attention to the fact that it becomes more and more difficult to find accommodation for school purposes in this quarter of Madura which is the most populous of the town. It is therefore very important that we should not lose this opportunity.

I have the honor to be,
Madame,
Your most obedient servant

C. No. 1131 From the D.P. 9 No. 3187, dated 5-6-1909.

SUBJECT. Recommending that the Correspondent of the Danappa mudaliar St. Girls' School, Madras, may be permitted to purchase a house for the school.

The Correspondent of the Danappa mudaliar Street Girls' School, Madras, requests that sanction may be accorded to the purchase of a house for the school prior to the approval <sup>of</sup> the plan and estimate of the building. The price of the house is Rs 12,500. The Correspondent intends applying for a third grant but the application cannot be sent in unless the school authorities are in possession of the house and its title deeds. The Correspondent urges that "the house must be bought by a third person without mention of the purpose for which it is intended and at a time auspicious in the opinion of the actual owner for business transactions and that "to reveal the purpose or to delay the purchase would be to lose the opportunity, as happened last year when they were making similar endeavours to buy a house for the school." The D.P. 9 recommends the grant of the permission applied for.

2. The draft order placed below is submitted for approval. Please see G.O. 319 & 27-5-09 for a precedent in which similar permission was granted to the Trustees of the Pachaiyappa's College, Madras.

The D.P. 9 seems competent to give this permission under article 51 (ii) of the Grant-in-aid Code.

There seems something mysterious about the purchase of this house. Probably if the owner knew it was to be bought by the Roman Catholics he would not sell.

2. The draft was, I submit, issue. It commits the Govt to nothing.
