C. No. 1795/Genl

Station Madras, Dated the 19th May 1909.

From (Name) D.W.G. Cowie, Esq., I.C.S., (Designation) Inspector-General of Police, Madras.

To The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

Sir,

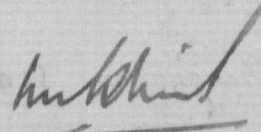

With reference to G.O.No.247, Educational, dated 27th April 1909, I have the honour to report that, owing to a misapprehension, it was understood that, ^{the} Note 1 in the preamble to the Public Service Notification definitely extended to all men who held permanent appointments on 1st July 1894 an exemption from the necessity of passing the tests mentioned in column 2 of the table appended to paragraph 3 of the Notification and, in consequence, certain unpassed men in my office have, in the course of the last three years, been promoted to appointments for which they are not qualified. It was not until the receipt of G.O.No.247, Educational, dated 27th April 1909, that it was realized that these promotions were irregular and required the sanction of Government. I forward herewith a list of the clerks so promoted, with the appointments now held by them, and the special tests which they should have passed, and request that Government may, under the special circumstances, be pleased to exempt them from passing those tests, in order that they may be allowed to retain their posts. All these men have deserved their promotions by their long service and good work and have been in receipt of their present pay so long that the only course that I can now recommend is to allow them to continue to draw it.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

for Insp.-Genl. of Police.

NOTES.

It w^d be hard to make these men sweat now, & w^d probably cause much inconvenience in the I. Q.'s Office.
Exemption might therefore be granted to cover the promotions given up to date. But I don't see why these men sh^d get further promotion without passing the necessary tests.
Please note whether there w^d be any technical or other objection to such an order.

Dec 30.5.09

Said that there is no objection to stating in the exemption order that the men sh^d not get further promotion without passing the necessary tests.

Ct.

There is no objection at all to such an order technically. But to keep these men hanging in the middle of the scale of establishment must inconvenience the I. Q.'s promotions.

But presumably some of them will pass, &
anyway the confusion
is the result of the
I. Q.'s own act.

Cbs
1.6.09.

In every I. Q.'s office there are men "hanging in the middle of the scale": but that is no reason to give them further promotion. It is the public service not the individual that the Head of an office must look after.

H. 24:

This is a case of seven men in the D.C.'s office promoted, without their having passed the test necessary to qualify for promotion.

Here are 3 possible courses

- (1) To desert them;
- (2) To exempt them from the test permanently;
- (3) To exempt them in so far as the promotion erroneously given is concerned; but to make them pass the test before further promotion is given.

I think no (3) - the middle course is the best.

See 2.6. of

I agree

The J.F. (as well as other Heads of Offices) is too fond of this sort of thing. I sh^d tell him plainly that unqualified men must not be placed in posts for wh. they are not qualified. Such appl's are to the serious detriment of the public service.

Of course this is all truism. But it is sometimes a good plan to take an opportunity to rule in elementary principles: it tends to foster greater care & attention to rules. I sh^d then go on to say that in the except^d cases Govt. will exempt them from in respect of the actual appl^s they hold, but that further promotion will not be allowed until & unless the necessary tests are passed

No. 356, dated 16-6-1961

With reference to his letter no. 1795 of 19.5.09 the D.G. of Police will be informed that unpassed men must not be placed in posts for which they are not qualified.
Such appointments are to the serious detriment of the public Service. But in the exceptional circumstances now represented the Govt. will exempt from the prescribed tests the seven clerks referred to by the D.G. in respect of the actual appointments they now hold;
they will not be allowed further promotion until and unless they pass the necessary tests.
