Letter—from Rao Bahadur M. RANGACHARYA, M.A., Registrar of Books, Madras.

To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department (through the Director of Public Instruction, Madras).

Dated—the 2nd June 1909.

No.—675.

In submitting herewith the printed copy of the Catalogue of Books registered in the Madras Presidency during the quarter ended the 31st March 1909, I have the honour to state that the instruction of the Government of India on the plan of numbering according to the subjects under which the registered publications are classified has been given effect to from the commencement of the current year.

2. It is worthy of note that the output of publications presented for registration during the quarter has come up to the same level as in the preceding two quarters, the total number registered during this quarter being 633. Of this, 503 have been grouped as "Books" and 130 as "Periodicals".

3. Distributed according to languages, English has contributed 180 works with diglot editions; Dutch 3; Tamil 152; Telugu 103; Malayalam 20; Kanarese 10; Konkani 1; Kodagu 1; Uriya 8; Hindustani 58; Arabic 20; Persian 7 and Sanskrit 69 printed in Telugu, Grantha and Nāgarī characters. Besides these, there has been published a vocabulary of Singalese words with Tamil equivalents.

4. Of the total number of works registered more than 18 per cent. are designed for educational purposes.

5. The total number of copyright entries made during the quarter under report is 144. Of these, 28 relate to Government publications registered free of charge and 6 to the books mentioned in the additional list appended to the accompanying catalogue.

* To be initialed and dated.

Superintendent should examine the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order of orders, in the file of correspondence, headed in succession with the Roman number I, II, III, etc., the number being written in or blue chalk above the item. The papers to be printed in the special issue should be indicated by the Roman number II, etc., by which that item has been in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b) For rules regarding printing of notices see the rules in G.O., No. 1220, Public, dated 30th November 1900.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or his representative.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notices and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Deputy Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Deputy Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, but only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.

Supdt.
