C.No.1215, from the Board of Revenue, L.R., No.1826, dated 17--6-1905

Subject.

Exemption from the examination rules

Put up a note please. What is the use of exempting a man who was dismissed?

C.A.S.
23-6-09.

The Board of Revenue, Land Revenue, requests that M. Hanumantha Rao, late s.p.t. Deputy Ranger Kurnool Eastern Division, may be exempted from the Forestry ^{and} Departmental tests from 23rd May 1903 to 11th May 1905. As regards the late submission of the application, the Board of Revenue state that the Conservator of Forests, Northern Circle, has reported that his office is to blame in the matter.

2. Hanumantha Rao is no longer in service. He misappropriated Government money and absconded on the 12th May 1905. He was consequently dismissed from the service in July 1905. As the man has been dismissed it is for consideration whether he should now be exempted from the Forestry and Departmental tests for the period during which he held the appointment of Deputy Ranger. The exemption order will not benefit him in any way but it will set aright the irregularity in having appointed him an unqualified candidate, to the post of Deputy Ranger without the sanction of Government. In these circumstances it seems necessary to sanction the exemption exempted for.

3. A draft order sanctioning the exemption is accordingly submitted for approval.

The exemption seems to me quite superfluous, especially after so long a delay.

I think we may say that as the man is no longer in office Govt. do not think it necessary for any order of exemption -

Presumably the Comr has taken due notice of the conduct of the Person responsible for the gross delay in making the app^t.
