My dear Wynch

Messrs. P. R. Ganapathi Aiyer,

First Assistant Professor at the Law College wishes to resign his appointment.

He may be called upon under the terms of his engagement (G.O. No. 50 of 30 January 1907) to give a term's notice but as it is so near the beginning of the term and a very suitable applicant offers his services I recommend that Mr. Paul Appaswamy be appointed on the usual terms.

The appointments of first and second Assistant Professors of the Law College are subject to the following conditions namely,

(1) that their salary will be $250 per

(2) that their appointments will be subject to a term's notice on either side; and

(3) that their service will not be pensionable.

2. The Assistant Professors are also allowed private practice (but not practice in Courts) on the strict understanding that such practice in no way interferes with their duties in the College. Vide para. 2 of G.O. No. 681 Est., dated 21st November 1901.

3. The proposal of the D-P-I. may be accepted, subject to the conditions above specified.

of Palamotta. He has excellent testimonials from his tutors at Cambridge when he took a very good degree. He has been called to the Bar and has been practising at Tunbridge. He struck me as being a capable young fellow with very pleasant manners.

I submit that the B.P.L.
Recommendation may be accepted.
