GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers :—

I

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. A. G. BOURNE, D.Sc., F.R.S., C.I.E., Director of Public Instruction.

To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department (through the Accountant-General).

Dated—Madras, the 21st June 1909.

No.—Ref. on Cur. No. 3699.

I have the honour to request the sanction of Government to the payment of the wages of three punkah-pullers at Rs. 3-8-0 per mensem for the acting Junior Professor and the two Assistant Professors of the Law College, Madras, for the months of February, March and April 1909. The Principal of the College states that punkah-pullers for the non-European members of the staff have hitherto been entertained throughout the year but that the Accountant-General has only now raised objection to the charge for want of the sanction of Government.

2. The Principal also requests a general sanction to the entertainment of the punkah-pullers for the non-European Professors of the college throughout the year except during the summer and Christmas vacations, when the college will be closed. In this connection, I beg to invite the attention of Government to their Order No. 56, Educational, dated 27th January 1909, stating that the provision of electric fans for the college is not required.

II

No. P.A. 5/4225, dated 6th July 1909.

Forwarded.

2. There is no audit objection to the proposal being sanctioned by Government.

3. There is a provision of Rs. 180 under "hot and cold weather charges" in the estimates of the current year.

J. F. GRAHAM,
Officiating Accountant-General.

Order—No. 449, Educational, dated 3rd August 1909.

The Government are unable to accept the proposal of the Director of Public Instruction that the Junior and the two Assistant Professors of the Law College should be allowed punkah-pullers throughout the year.

2. Sanction will, however, be accorded to the payment of the wages of the three punkah-pullers employed during the months of February, March and April 1909.

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 21st June 1909, No. 3699.

The Director of Public Instruction requests the sanction of Government for two proposals :—

(1) To the payment of the wages of three punkah-pullers at Rs. 3-8-0 per mensem for the acting Junior Professor and the two Assistant Professors of the Law College for the months of February, March and April 1909 ; and

(2) to the employment of punkah-pullers for the non-European Professors of the College throughout the year except during the summer and Christmas vacations.

2. (1) Payment of the punkah-pullers' wages for the months of February, March and April 1909.—The Accountant-General states that there is no audit objection to the payment of these charges and they may, it is submitted, be sanctioned.

C. A. SOUTER—26-7-09.

3. (2) Employment of punkah-pullers throughout the year for the non-European Professors of the College except during vacations.—Under existing orders charges for punkah-pulling are admissible throughout the year in the case of European officers and for six months in the year for other officers—vide G.O., No. 689, Financial, dated 6th September 1902. Under this rule punkah-pullers for the Professors and Assistant Professors of the Law College who are not Europeans cannot be employed for more than six months. But punkah-pullers for these officers have hitherto been employed throughout the year and only on the present occasion has the Accountant-General objected to pass the charge. The Director of Public Instruction therefore requests that sanction may be accorded to the employment of punkah-pullers for these Professors throughout the year, except during the summer and Christmas vacations, when the college is closed.

4. The Law College closes for nine weeks for the summer vacation and for a month at Christmas—vide rule 33 of the Law College rules approved in G.O., No. 118, Educational, dated 14th February 1908. The period during which the College remains open is thus eight months and three weeks and the Director's request in reality amounts to employing punkah-pullers for the Junior and Assistant Professors for eight months and three weeks instead of for six months, the period usually allowed.

Cf. G.O., No. 689, Financial, dated 6th September 1902.

5. It is for consideration whether the Director's request in this respect may be granted. The Accountant-General states that there is no account objection to the request being granted and the Director of Public Instruction invites the attention of Government to G.O., No. 56, Educational, dated 27th January 1909, under which the provision of electric fans for the college has been given up.

T.K.—20-7-09.

In G.O., No. 194, Educational, dated 29th March 1909, the Government declined to sanction the proposal of the Director of Public Instruction that the services of the punkah-puller should be retained throughout the year, in the case of a native officer who was temporarily holding the post of Deputy Director.

* Pay Rs. 650.

Cf. advertisement on page 4 of G.O., No. 50, dated 30th January 1907.

And also G.O., No. 681, dated 21st November 1901.

ment appears to be, that the Principal, the Junior Professor and the two Assistant Professors, each occupy permanently one of the lecture-rooms in the college, and the students of the various classes go to the respective Professor's room whose lecture or class they have to attend.

3. There appears to be no reason why an exception to the rule should be made in the case of the Junior Professor and the two Assistant Professors of the Law College, and the charges for punkah pulling sanctioned throughout the year. The expenditure already incurred may perhaps be sanctioned.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—24-7-09.

The expenditure already incurred may be sanctioned.

2. There seems no reason whatever to make a special case of the non-European Professors of the Law College. They should, I submit, be allowed punkah-pullers only for six months like other native officers.

C. A. SOUTER—26-7-09.

Above view may, it is submitted, be approved.

(G.O., No. 194, Educational, dated 29th March 1909, went to Honourable Member, so this is similarly submitted).

* To be initialled and dated.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b) For rules regarding printing of notes, see the rules in G.O., No. 1220, Public, dated 30th November 1900.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Deputy Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Deputy Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, but only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
