G.O., No. 276, Educational, dated 8th May 1909.

ABSTRACT.—Accepting the Matriculation examination of the Allahabad University as equivalent to the Upper Secondary or Matriculation examination of the Madras University for the purposes of article 1 of the Public Service Notification.

II

G.O., Mis. No. 2080, Revenue, dated 30th July 1909.

Read—the following papers :—

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Land Revenue), Forest Mis. No. 610, dated 2nd June 1909.

Read—the following paper :—

*Letter—*from A. W. LUSHINGTON, Esq., Conservator of Forests, Northern Circle.
*To—*the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue.
*Dated—*the 3rd May 1909.
*No.—*R. C. 1625.

I have the honour to state that the Temporary Deputy Ranger C. G. Kistna who was exempted from passing the Matriculation examination till 31st December 1908 in Board's Proceedings, Forest Mis. No. 233, dated 25th February 1909, is declared to have passed the Entrance examination of the Allahabad University and request that you will be so good as to inform me whether this examination may be taken to be equivalent to a standard not less than that of the Matriculation examination of the Madras University for purposes of paragraph 31 (i) of the Forest Code, third edition.

2. One Dewan Chand who was appointed Deputy Ranger similarly passed Punjab University Matriculation examination, and I have the honour to ask whether that can be taken as equivalent to the ordinary Matriculation examination of the Madras University as it is, I believe, accepted in Northern India as such.

Resolution—Forest Mis. No. 610, dated 2nd June 1909.

The Conservator will be informed that a candidate who has passed the Entrance examination of the Allahabad University cannot be regarded on that account as having been educated up to a standard not lower than that of the Matriculation examination of the Madras University nor can the Matriculation examination of the Punjab University be accepted as equivalent to that of the Madras University.

*Endorsement—*of the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.
*To—*the Director of Public Instruction, Madras.
*Dated—*the 16th June 1909.
*No.—*1177-1.

Referred to the Director of Public Instruction who is requested to state whether the Matriculation examination of the Punjab University may be accepted as equivalent to that of the Madras University.

*Letter—*from the Director of Public Instruction, Madras.
*To—*the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.
*Dated—*the 30th June 1909.
*No.—*Ref. on Cur. No. 4279.

With reference to Memorandum No. 1177-1, Educational, dated 16th June 1909, I have the honour to state that I see no objection to the Matriculation examination of the Punjab University being accepted as equivalent to that of the Madras University.

2. I return herewith the annexures received with the memorandum under reply.

Order—Mis. No. 2080, Revenue, dated 30th July 1909.

In G.O., No. 276, Educational, dated 8th May 1909, the Government accepted the Matriculation examination of the Allahabad University as equivalent to the Upper Secondary examination or the Matriculation examination of the Madras University.

2. Orders will now separately issue in the Educational Department accepting the Matriculation examination of the Punjab University as equivalent to that of the Madras University.

3. The Board of Revenue is requested to modify accordingly the orders contained in its Proceedings read above.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b¹) For rules regarding printing of notes, see the rules in G.O., No. 1220, Public, dated 30th November 1900.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Deputy Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Deputy Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, but only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
