From (Name) H. A. B. Vernon, Esq., I.C.S.,

(Designation) Private Secretary to His Excellency

The Governor of Madras.

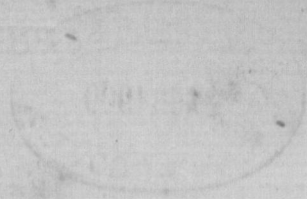

To The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Sir,

With reference to G.O. No. 519, Public, dated the 23rd July 1909, fixing the qualification of candidates for the new post of Clerk on Rs.75-5-100, I have the honour to state that I have received an application from one P.
Rajagopala Chari (enclosed) who is a Graduate in Arts and Law and who has passed the Advanced grade in Shorthand. I have seen the individual and I consider that he will be a suitable candidate for the post. As however P. Rajagopala Chari has not passed any examination in Type-writing, I propose to appoint him on 75-5-100 as sub pro tem on probation till he passes the Type-writing examination in the Advanced grade. I have notified the vacancy in the Fort St.
George Gazette and have called for applications. I doubt however whether I shall get a man who has passed the 8th July 1909.

To

The Private Secretary

TO HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR OF MADRAS, Government House, Ootacamund.

Sir,

Having heard that the place of a Shorthand-Writer who will also be required to do well as a Confidential and Personal Assistant or Clerk is vacant in your Office, I beg to offer myself for the same.

I am a Graduate in Arts & Law having taken the E. A. degree in March 1905 and the E. L. degree in March 1907. In the E.A. degree Examination my Vernacular was Telugu though my mother tongue is Tamil and I had high ranks in English & History. Subsequent to my taking the E.L. degree I served an year of Apprenticeship and am at present a practising vakil of the High Court of Madras.

So far back as April 1902 I passed the Advanced Grade Examination in Shorthand in the Technical Examinations of the Government of Madras. I passed the Elementary & Intermediate Grade Examinations in the same in the First Class and drew Scholarship from Government for 4 years. I was engaged as the sole Reporter to the last Indian Industrial Conference held in Madras last last December and jointly to the Indian National Congress as well and I beg to bring to your notice that the transcripts were handed over this time within a week or ten days of the closing of those assemblies. For several months from November 1907 I was engaged on behalf of the Raja of Vizianagaram to take verbatim notes of the arguments in the suits recently brought against him and I was able to give every satisfaction to the Hon'ble Mr. V. Krishnaswamy Iyer the Vakil for the principal Plaintiff and the person whose arguments I had mostly to take notes of. At present I have not practised Type-writing, but if the place is kindly given me, and you desire it, I expect to be able to learn it in a very short time. I beg leave to submit that I am alone in South India in the combination of high general educational attainments with proficiency in Shorthand, such as I have attained to.

I belong to a family of loyal and devoted servants of Government and hence my desire to enter the service of Government. My father, Mr. P. Ramanuja Charry, has been in the Government educational department for now nearly 30 years and is at present Sub-Assistant - Inspector of Schools, Tiruvallur, Chengleput District. My father-in-law, Mr. P. Doraiswamy Aiyengar is a Deputy Collector.

With your kind permission I would also refer to the fact of my having been one of those most actively associated in the carrying out of the recent Loyal Celebration in Madras. Having been luckily introduced into it, I worked very heartily and strenuously in it as the Secretaries can testify, the entire Office work besides some Executive work having been looked after by me.

Taking my special qualifications into consideration as well as the fact of my being an enrolled and practising Vakild of the High Court I pray that the place with a salary of not less than Rs.100/- a month be given me.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Pratap Chandra Acharya

One of the qualifications prescribed for the ^{Candidates for} new post of Clerk on Rs 75-5-100, which has been recently created in the P.S.G.'s office, is that they should have passed the Government (Technical) Examination in Typewriting, advanced grade. P. Rajagopalakrishnan the Candidate whom the P.S.G. has selected for this post has not passed any examination in typewriting. The P.S.G. therefore propose to appoint him on probation till he passes the typewriting examination in the Advanced Grade. This would mean that the Candidate is to ~~be~~ be on probation indefinitely, if he does not pass the required examination. The proper course seems to be to exempt the Candidate temporarily from the Govt. Technical Examination in Typewriting, Advanced Grade, for a definite period say, two or three years, his probationary period being also made synchronous with this. The draft order placed.

placed below is for approval.

See.

This, I think, is the correct way to deal with the case. But it is a little anomalous that the first applicant for this new post should have to be exempted.
