At the Conference of the Principals, Professors and Chief Lecturers of the Government First-grade colleges held at the Presidency College in April 1907 to discuss the questions connected with the new University Regulations, it was resolved that the Presidency College should be affiliated for the Honours Degree Courses in branches I, II (a), II (b), III, IV, V, VII and VIII and that the Kumbakonam and Rajahmundry colleges should not undertake Honours Courses for some time to come. 2. Soon after the new University Regulations were issued, a Conference was held in the Presidency College of the Principals and Professors or Chief Lecturers of the Government First-grade Colleges to discuss the various questions connected with the new regulations and, in particular, the subjects in which each college should be affiliated to the University. At this Conference it was resolved "that the Presidency College should pay primary

"attention to the Honours courses, with a view ultimately to confine itself to these courses" and that it should be affiliated to the University "for the Honours Degree course in Branches I, II (a), II (b), III, IV, V, VII and VIII."

3. The proposals submitted by the Director of Public Instruction for the reorganization of the teaching staff of the Presidency College and approved by Government in G.O., No. 31, Educational, dated 16th January 1909, were accordingly made with due regard to the fact that the College would be affiliated to the University for the Honours courses and in paragraph 4 of the letter to the Government of India, No. 148, Educational, dated 13th March 1909, submitting the proposals for the reorganization of the teaching staff of the Government First-grade Colleges, it was stated that "it has been arranged that the Presidency College should provide instruction in all the branches of the Honours Degree course as well as in those of the pass course, which it now provides." Paragraph 10 of the letter further stated that "the Honours classes in the Presidency College will not be formed till July 1911 and not until 1913 will the full complement of honours classes be at work."

4. From these it will be evident that the intention is that the Presidency College should be affiliated to the University for the Honours Degree courses in the subjects specified in paragraph 1 of this note and the Director of Public Instruction may, if it is submitted, be permitted to intimate this fact to the Syndicate of the University as proposed.
