READ—the following papers :—

I

Letter—from Sir C. J. LYALL, K.C.S.I., C.I.E., Secretary, Judicial and Public Department, India Office.

To—the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.

Dated—London, the 10th June 1909.

No.—J. & P. 1955.

With reference to the telegram from the Government of Madras, dated the 24th ultimo, I forward in triplicate the agreement of Mr. Dodwell on his temporary appointment to the Indian Educational Service. The agreement has been duly signed by two members of the Council of India, and, when signed by Mr. Dodwell, one part should be handed to him, one part retained by the Government of Madras and the third returned to this country.

II

Memorandum No. 1264-1, Educational, dated 2nd July 1909.

The agreement of Mr. H. Dodwell on his temporary appointment to the Indian Educational Service which has been duly signed by two members of the Council of India is forwarded, in triplicate, to the Director of Public Instruction who is requested to have it signed by Mr. Dodwell. When it has been so signed, one part should be handed to Mr. Dodwell and the other two should be returned to Government.

III

Letter—from HENRY DODWELL, Esq., Acting Professor of History, Presidency College, Madras.

To—the Director of Public Instruction (through the Principal, Presidency College).

Dated—the 12th July 1909.

I would beg to point out that in the agreement sent to me the appointment is made from July 15th for eight months. I took up work according to your order on July 5th; and the original offer was not for so long a period. I venture therefore to call your attention to these points in case they should be mistakes, and request your instruction whether I should sign or not. Should I sign the agreement it seems that I should lose pay for ten days, unless a special order for that period could be made; and should the agreement be sent home for alteration, I fear that would prevent my receiving pay for a considerable time. If it is possible, I should therefore regard it as a great favour to be allowed to sign the present agreement and receive a special order which will enable me to draw pay for the period not covered by the agreement itself.

IV

Endt.—from the Hon'ble Mr. A. G. BOURNE, D.Sc., F.R.S., C.I.E., Director of Public Instruction.

To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.

Dated—Madras, the 28th July 1909.

No.—N. Ref. on C. No. 4646.

Submitted to Government for favour of early orders.

2. It was under the orders of Government contained in G.O., No. 159, Educational, dated 26th April 1909, that Mr. Dodwell was instructed to take charge of the History Professorship in the Presidency College on the 5th July 1909. The date of his appointment, viz., 15th July, entered in the agreement (copy enclosed for reference and favour of return) needs therefore to be corrected into 5th July to enable him to draw pay from that date.

3. Mr. Dodwell's services are required at present for a period of 5 months and 18 days only from 5th July 1909 which corresponds with the period of Mr. Allen's furlough and not for 8 months as stated in the agreement. The period of termination of the agreement is however not of much consequence if it is settled that he should act for Mr. Mayhew when the latter's transfer to the service of the Nizam's Government takes effect in December next.

Memorandum No. 1457-1, Educational, dated 9th August 1909.

With reference to his R.C. No. 4646, dated 28th July 1909, the Director of Public Instruction is requested to ask Mr. Dodwell to alter the date given in the agreement into 5th July under his initials and sign the agreement at an early date.

From the Director of Public Instruction, No. 4646, dated 28th July 1909.

In June 1908 the Director of Public Instruction reported that Mr. H. J. Allen, Professor of History, Presidency College, proposed to apply for furlough out of India for a total period of nine to ten months dating either from the end of March 1909 to the end of the Christmas vacation of the college, or from the beginning of the summer vacation of 1909 to February 1910. In his u.o. note, dated 6th July 1908, Dr. Bourne stated that it would be necessary to secure some outsider, presumably through the Secretary of State, to act for Mr. Allen when he went on leave, as there was none in the Educational Department who could suitably act as Professor of History.

2. The Government thereupon addressed the Secretary of State stating that Mr. Allen desired to proceed on furlough out of India for a period of eight months in continuation of the summer vacation of the college in 1909 and requesting that a suitable person might be selected to act as Professor of History in the Presidency College for a period of eight months. It was also requested that the selected person should arrive in Madras on or about the 15th July 1909—vide paragraph 3 of Educational Despatch No. 5, dated 10th August 1908.

3. On the 1st October 1908 Mr. Henry Dodwell of Pachaiyappa's College, Madras, applied to the Secretary of State for an appointment in the Indian Educational Service and requested that, if possible, he might be appointed to one of the vacancies then existing in Madras. The Secretary of State forwarded Mr. Dodwell's application to this Government and asked for the opinion of this Government as to Mr. Dodwell's fitness for appointment. The Government, after consulting the Director of Public Instruction, reported that Mr. Dodwell was well qualified for a post in the Indian Educational Service—vide G.O., No. 803, Educational, dated 3rd December 1908.

4. The Secretary of State then intimated that he was prepared to offer Mr. Dodwell, should he be reported by the Medical Board at Madras to be physically fit for service in India, the temporary appointment of acting Professor of History in the Presidency College. He also requested this Government to cause Mr. Dodwell to be medically examined and, if the result was favourable, to inform him whether Mr. Dodwell would accept the acting appointment offered. He further observed that, should Mr. Dodwell give satisfaction in the acting vacancy, there would be little difficulty in finding a suitable post for him on its termination.

5. The Government then caused Mr. Dodwell to be examined by the Medical Board and as the result was favourable offered him the acting appointment of Professor of History in the Presidency College. Mr. Dodwell having accepted the offer, he was appointed to act as Professor of History in the Presidency College with effect from the 5th July 1909 when the college reopened after the summer vacation—vide G.O., R. No. 159, Educational, dated 26th April 1909—in the place of Mr. Allen, who had, in the meantime, been granted furlough for 5 months and 18 days in continuation of the summer vacation—G.O., No. 159, Educational, dated 16th March 1909.

6. The Secretary of State was then informed of Mr. Dodwell's appointment and was asked to send the agreement to be executed by him—vide the telegram with G.O., R. No. 195, Educational, dated 25th May 1909. The agreement was received on the 30th June last and was forwarded with Memorandum No. 1364-1, dated 2nd July 1909, to the Director of Public Instruction with the request that he would have it signed by Mr. Dodwell.

7. Mr. Dodwell now points out that the date of his appointment is given in the agreement as 15th July 1909 instead of 5th July 1909, and that the period of his appointment is given as eight months instead of 5 months and 18 days. In these circumstances, he requests to be informed whether he should sign the agreement or not.

8. The Director of Public Instruction states that as Mr. Dodwell was appointed to act as a Professor of History from the 5th July, the date given in the agreement, viz. 15th July, might be altered to 5th July to enable him to draw pay from that date. He further points out that the period of termination of the agreement is not of much consequence, if it is settled that Mr. Dodwell should act for Mr. Mayhew when the latter is transferred to the services of the Nizam's Government in December next. That Mr. Dodwell should act for Mr. Mayhew seems to be practically settled, please see Mr. Butterworth's note, dated 3rd May 1909, on page 4 of K.W., G.O., Nos. 374-5, Educational, dated 24th June 1909. Therefore nothing need be done, as the Director of Public Instruction says, about the period of termination of the appointment mentioned in the draft agreement.

9. As regards the date of commencement of service, Mr. Dodwell may, it is submitted, be asked to alter it into 5th July under his initials and execute the agreement. The India Office apparently took the date of 15th July from paragraph 3 of the Educational Despatch No. 5, dated 10th August 1908.
