Letter—from F. DEWSBURY, Esq., B.A., LL.B., Registrar, University of Madras.
To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.
Dated—Senate House, the 20th August 1909.
No.—2474.

I have the honour to draw your attention to paragraph 3 of the G.O., No. 827, Educational, dated 17th December 1906, in which it was directed that, from 1st April 1907, a sum of Rs. 480 be paid annually to the University out of the rent levied on the Tamkam bungalow, and to state that no payments have been made since the date of the order. I have to enquire, for the information of the Syndicate, whether the order of Government has subsequently been modified and payments deferred on any account.

Order—No. 503, Educational, dated 2nd September 1909.

With reference to his letter No. 2474, dated 20th August 1909, the Registrar of the University of Madras will be informed that G.O., No. 827, Educational, dated 17th December 1906, has not been subsequently modified and that the annual contribution of Rs. 480 due for the maintenance of the Johnston of Carnsalloch scholarships should have been drawn by the University at the beginning of every official year. The Accountant-General will now be requested to place at the disposal of the University the amount due for the years 1907, 1908 and 1909. He will also be requested in future to place annually at the disposal of the University a sum of Rs. 480 for the maintenance of the Johnston of Carnsalloch scholarships, the charge being debited to the head "22. Education—University".

From the Registrar, Madras University, dated 20th August 1909, No. 2474.

The Registrar, Madras University, states that no payment has been made to the University since April 1907 for the maintenance of the Johnston of Carnsalloch scholarships and enquires whether G.O., No. 827, Educational, dated 17th December 1906, which directed the payment of a sum of Rs. 480 annually to the University has subsequently been modified.

2. In paragraph 3 of G.O., No. 827, Educational, dated 17th December 1906, the Government said that, from 1st April 1907, a sum of Rs. 480 would be paid annually to the University for the maintenance of the Johnston of Carnsalloch scholarships in accordance with the arrangement sanctioned in G.O., No. 102, Educational, dated 11th February 1904. In pursuance of the above order, a sum of Rs. 480

Vide page 3 of the budget notes. was provided under "University" both in the budget for 1907-1908 and 1908-1909 and a similar provision exists in the current year's budget also. From the letter of the Registrar it now appears that the amount was not drawn during the last two years and that it has not been drawn during the current year also.

3. The Accountant-General may now be requested to pay the amount due for the last two years as well as the amount due for the current year immediately and to arrange for the future to pay the amount at the beginning of every official year.

4. The draft below is for approval. If approved it may be sent to the Financial department for acceptance.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b¹) For rules regarding printing of notes, see the rules in G.O., No. 1220, Public, dated 30th November 1900.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Deputy Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Deputy Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, but only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
