As. Secretary to Government, the Educational Dept.
Ootacamund.

Sir,

As you are aware I am much interested in the work relating to Oriental Mss.

2. I understand the Madras Government Oriental Mss.
Library publishes now ^{and} again Catalogues of Sanskrit and Dravidian Mss. and of occasionally interesting works lodged in it. I also understand that they ^{authorities of the library} keep a list of persons to whom they supply these, with the previous sanction of Government, free of cost. I request you will be so good as to include my name to this list, and further direct copies of Catalogues, Reports on Search for Mss., and other publications so far published by the Library authorities may be furnished to me free of cost at the above given address.

I beg to remain,

Sir,
Your most Obedt Servant
C. Hayavadana Rao

NOTES.

C. No. 1592 From the M.Ry. C. Hayavadana Rao. No., dated 20. 8. 1909.

SUBJECT. Requesting that he may be supplied with Copies of publications of the Govt. Oriental manuscript Library, Madras.

Current file.

M.R.Ry. C. Hayavadana Rao, Egmore, Madras, requests

(1) that his name may be included in the list of persons to whom catalogues of Sanskrit, Dravidian and other manuscripts in the Government Oriental Manuscripts Library, Madras, which are published by the library, are supplied; and

(2) that he may be supplied, free of cost, with copies of catalogues, Reports on Search for Manuscripts, and other works hitherto published by the Government Oriental Manuscripts Library.

2. No list of persons similar to that referred to by Mr. Hayavadana Rao appears to be maintained by the Oriental Manuscripts Library. A list of persons and institutions in and outside India interested in Sanskrit learning to whom should be supplied Catalogues of Sanskrit Manuscripts published by the Library, has been forwarded by the Government of India and copies of Catalogues of Sanskrit Manuscripts are distributed by the Superintendent, Government Press, in accordance with this list. ^{This} ~~list~~ is apparently the list Mr. Hayavadana Rao refers to in his letter. Any additions to this list can only be made with the sanction of the Government of India. It is for consideration whether Mr. Hayavadana Rao can be said to be a person so much interested in Sanskrit learning as to justify a reference to the Government of India on the subject.

3. Assuming that ~~Mr.~~ Hayavadana Rao's name is included in this list, he would get only Catalogues of Sanskrit Manuscripts and not the Catalogues of Dravidian and other manuscripts which may be published by the Library, in which ~~Mr.~~ Hayavadana Rao seems to be more interested.

cf. para. 1 of his letter.

6. It is for consideration whether ~~Mr.~~ Hayavadana Rao may be supplied with a copy of each of these publications and whether his request for copies of Dravidian and other manuscripts may be communicated to the Curator, ^(Oriental Manuscripts Library) with the request that his ^(Hayavadana Rao's) name may be included in the distribution list of the Descriptive Catalogues of Tamil and Telugu manuscripts which

I don't know Hayavadana worthy there is no difficulty in giving him the books he wants.

See that in Secy's letter DPT. has made a no. of suggested additions to the above list. H. Rao seems to me to be as well worth including as ~~but~~ some of the DPT's nominees. Let his application come up with the DPT's letter Mrs.
