GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. A. G. BOURNE, D.Sc., F.R.S., C.I.E., Director of Public Instruction.

To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department (through the Accountant-General).

Dated—Madras, the 20th August 1909.

No.—Ref. on Cur. No. 3650.

I have the honour to request you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for the entertainment of an additional teacher on Rs. 10 per mensem in the Government Girls' school, Chidambaram, with effect from 1st March 1910.

2. There are at present seven standards in the school with a strength of 177 pupils as detailed in the margin and the Inspectress reports that the staff of five teachers sanctioned for the school is utterly inadequate as at present each of the last four standards is in charge of an assistant mistress and the headmistress has to teach the other three standards. The second assistant of the Government Girls' school, Pattukkóttai, which has been temporarily closed for want of a suitable house in the locality has, however, been deputed to work in the girls' school at Chidambaram as a strictly temporary arrangement in order to afford the headmistress some relief, but as that teacher will have to revert to her appointment towards the close of the year when the new building at Pattukkóttai is expected to be ready, I beg to recommend that the employment of the additional teacher proposed for the girls' school at Chidambaram be sanctioned with effect from 1st March next and that permission be granted for providing for the charge in the budget estimate for the ensuing year.

3. The usual proposition statement is herewith submitted for favour of sanction.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 521, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 13TH SEPTEMBER 1909.

[SUBJECT.—Employment of an additional teacher in the Government Girls' school,
Chidambaram.]

Previous paper.

G.O., No. 583, Educational, dated 25th August 1905.

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 20th August 1909, No. 3650.

The Director of Public Instruction requests the sanction of Government to the employment of an additional teacher on Rs. 10 per mensem in the Government Girls' school at Chidambaram with effect from the 1st March 1910.

2. There are at present seven classes in this school with a strength of 177 pupils as shown below:—

But see the second paragraph of Rule 81 of the Educational Rules.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—7-9-09.

3. The teaching staff of the school now consists of five teachers—a headmistress and four assistants. The four assistants are in charge of the lowest four classes and the headmistress is in charge of the remaining three. As one teacher cannot manage three classes, the employment of an additional teacher seems clearly to be necessary. The Director of Public Instruction's proposal may, therefore, be sanctioned.

4. The Director of Public Instruction proposes to employ the additional teacher from 1st March 1910, as he has now deputed temporarily the second assistant of the Pattukóttai school to work in the school at Chidambaram. The Pattukóttai school has been temporarily closed for want of a suitable building and as the new building intended for the school is not ready. Dr. Bourne says that it will be opened next year.

5. The draft below is for approval. If approved, it may be sent to the Financial Department for acceptance.

T.K.—6-9-09.

* Fifth Edition.

The second paragraph of rule 81 of the Educational * Rules says that "in a school with more than five standards there should be an extra teacher for every 35 pupils in the higher standards or for any one standard containing more than 20 pupils." According to this rule, a single teacher would be enough for the three higher standards which have only a strength of 26 in the aggregate, but as one of these standards, namely, the fourth standard, has a strength of 19, a number which is very near the minimum (20) for which a separate teacher would be required under the rule, the additional teacher now asked for may perhaps be granted.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b¹) For rules regarding printing of notes, see the rules in G.O., No. 1220, Public, dated 30th November 1900.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Deputy Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Deputy Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, but only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.

TO PRESS, MADRAS
