GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. A. G. BOURNE, D.Sc., F.R.S., C.I.E., Director of Public Instruction, Madras.
To—the Secretary to the Government, Educational Department.
Dated—the 13th September 1909.
No.—Ref. on Cur. No. 1855/09.

I have the honour to submit copies of certain communications from the Principal, Presidency College, Madras, from which it will be seen that a sum of Rs. 477 has been collected by a committee of the students of the college with the object of founding a prize in commemoration of the services of the late Mr. T. R. Scott, B.A., Junior Professor of English. I beg to recommend that the offer may be accepted and that the Accountant-General may be authorized to receive the amount. Should Government be pleased to accept the offer, I shall, in order to place the matter on a proper legal basis, obtain and submit two formal applications, one for vesting the endowment in the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments and the other for settling a scheme for the administration of the fund.

ENCLOSURES.

Letter—from J. H. STONE, Esq., M.A., Principal, Presidency College.
To—the Director of Public Instruction, Madras.
Dated—the 15th March 1909.
No.—191.

I have the honour to inform you that a committee of the students of the college have collected a sum of Rs. 477 for a memorial to the late Mr. T. R. Scott.

2. It is desired that this sum may be handed over to the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments to be invested in $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. Government paper and that the interest may be devoted to an annual prize called the Scott Elocution Prize to be given to that student of the third year University Class who, in the opinion of the College Council, acquits himself best in elocution provided that the prize shall not be awarded to any student more than once. It is intended that the Council shall make the award on the result of a competition.

3. I therefore request you to be good enough to take such steps as are necessary for carrying out the intentions of the donors.

To—the Director of Public Instruction, Madras.
Dated—the 20th July 1909.
No.—481.

With reference to your Proceedings Ref. on Cur. No. 1855, dated the 15th April 1909, I have the honour to inform you that the committee have appointed as Trustees to administer the proposed Scott Memorial Fund, the Principal, Presidency College, for the time being and the Senior Professor, not being also the Principal for the time being.

Order—No. 540, Educational, dated 28th September 1909.

The Government are pleased to accept the offer of Mr. Stone, made on behalf of the students of the Presidency College, Madras, to endow in connection with the college a prize in the name of Mr. T. R. Scott, formerly Junior Professor of English in that college.

2. The Accountant-General will be authorised to receive the sum remitted by Mr. Stone, to purchase Government securities for the amount and to report to the Director of Public Instruction the number of the securities purchased and the balance in cash, if any.

3. The Director of Public Instruction will be requested to obtain two formal applications under the Charitable Endowments Act, 1890, one for vesting the fund in the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments and the other for settling a scheme for the administration of the endowment.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks and references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b¹) For rules regarding printing of notes, see the rules in G.O., No. 1220, Public, dated 30th November 1900.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Deputy Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Deputy Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, but only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
