GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. A. G. BOURNE, D.Sc., F.R.S., C.I.E., Director of Public Instruction.

To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.

Dated—Madras, the 13th September 1909.

No.—Ref on Cur. No. 3090.

In submitting a letter from Mr. H. Nowroji, B.C.E., A.M.I.C.E., offering an endowment of Rs. 3,250 with the object of instituting three prizes to be attached to the College of Engineering, Madras, in commemoration of the services rendered by Colonel H. D. Love, R.E., late Principal of that institution, I have the honour to recommend that the offer may be accepted and that the Accountant-General may be authorized to receive the amount. In case the offer is accepted, the donor will, in order to place the matter on a proper legal footing, be requested to make two formal applications under Act VI of 1890, one for vesting the endowment fund in the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments and the other for settling a scheme for the administration of the fund.

ENCLOSURE.

Letter—from Mr. H. NOWROJI, B.C.E., A.M.I.C.E., Honorary Secretary, Colonel Love Memorial Fund.

To—Secretary to Government, Educational Department (through the Director of Public Instruction, Madras).

Dated—the 28th April 1909.

On behalf of the subscribers to the Colonel Love Memorial Fund, and in accordance with the resolutions passed at a meeting of the subscribers held at the College of Engineering, Madras, on the 30th December 1908, I have the honour to request that Government may be pleased to accept an endowment of Rs. 3,250 for founding three prizes to be awarded annually to students of the College of Engineering, Madras, subject to the conditions named below, for the purpose of commemorating the services rendered by Colonel H. D. Love, R.E., to the cause of Engineering education in this Presidency.

2. The prizes to be called the Colonel Love prizes.

One prize of the value of the yearly interest accruing from a sum of Rs. 1,500 to be awarded annually to the student of the Senior Engineering class, who stands first in applied mechanics.

One prize of the value of the yearly interest accruing from a sum of Rs. 1,000 to be awarded annually to the student of the Senior Subordinate class, who stands first in Hydraulic Engineering.

One prize of the value of the yearly interest accruing from a sum of Rs. 750 to be awarded annually to the student of the Lower Subordinate class, who stands first on the results of the final examination.

3. The fund to be administered by the Chief Engineer, Public Works Department, Madras, and the Principal of the College of Engineering, Madras, for the time being.

Order—No. 541, Educational, dated 28th September 1909.

The Government are pleased to accept the offer of Mr. H. Nowroji, Honorary Secretary, Colonel Love Memorial Fund, to endow in connection with the College of Engineering, Madras, three prizes in the name of Colonel H. D. Love, late Principal of that College.

2. The Accountant-General will be authorised to receive the sum offered by Mr. H. Nowroji to purchase Government securities for the amount and to report to the Director of Public Instruction the number of the securities purchased and the balance in cash, if any.

3. The Director of Public Instruction will be requested to obtain two formal applications under the Charitable Endowments Act, 1890, one for vesting the fund in the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments and the other for settling a scheme for the administration of the endowment.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

- (a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.
- (b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.
- (b¹) For rules regarding printing of notes, see the rules in G.O., No. 1220, Public, dated 30th November 1900.
- (c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.
- (d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.
- (e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

- (a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Deputy Registrar with a remark to that effect.
- (b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Deputy Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.
- (c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.
- (d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.
- (e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, but only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
