From the Accountant-General, dated 2nd September 1909, No. B.K.-6/63/7170.

In 1894 the Government sanctioned the abolition of the Waltair Orphanage, ordered its buildings to be sold and undertook to maintain, from the amount realized by the sale of the buildings, the boys and girls who were then in the Orphanage until they arrived at an age to earn their own living. The Orphanage was closed accordingly and thirteen pupils from it were sent to the Civil Orphan Asylum, the Government agreeing to pay Rs. 15 per mensem for the maintenance of each pupil—vide G.O., No. 482, Educational, dated 29th June 1894.

2. When the amount realized by the sale of the Orphanage buildings was paid into the treasury, the Accountant-General was requested to maintain a separate account showing the receipts and charges on account of the late Waltair Orphan Asylum, and to submit a balance sheet once a year for the information of Government—vide G.O., No. 489, Educational, dated 12th June 1895, on page 4 of G.O., No. 905, Educational, dated 25th November 1895. Interest at $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. per annum was allowed on the opening balance of the amount each year—vide the Accountant-General's letter on page 3 of G.O., No. 590, Educational, dated 26th October 1897.

3. By the year 1902, twelve of the thirteen pupils admitted into the Civil Orphan Asylum had left the institution, but a considerable balance of the fund still remained. The Government therefore sanctioned the admission of three orphans from the Northern Circars into the Civil Orphan Asylum to be maintained from the balance of the Waltair Orphanage Fund. Of these three pupils only one, Charlotte Louisa Latimer, whose admission was sanctioned in G.O., No. 742, Educational, dated 5th December 1902, remained in the Asylum on the 31st December 1908. She was born on 31st July 1892 and should have left the institution in August last on her attaining the age of 17 years.

Vide page 4 of the Civil Orphan Asylum report with G.O., No. 377, dated 28th June 1909.

4. According to the balance sheet now submitted by the Accountant-General, there remained only a sum of Rs. 34-7-2 on the 31st March last. The Accountant-General states that this amount must have been absorbed by the payments during the first quarter of the current official year and enquires whether any further report is necessary from him on the subject. If the amount of Rs. 34-7-2 has actually been paid up, no further report will be necessary and the separate account maintained by the Accountant-General under G.O., No. 489, Educational, dated 12th June 1895, may be closed. But as there is no information as to whether the amount of Rs. 34-7-2 has actually been expended, the Accountant-General may be asked for a report on the point before Government orders the separate account to be closed.

5. The draft below is for approval.

T.K.—14-9-09.

The balance of the Waltair Orphan Asylum on the 31st March 1909 (Rupees 34-7-2) should certainly have been used up in the first quarter of the current year, as observed by the Accountant-General. But perhaps it is better to make sure.

[Memorandum No. 1642-1, dated 15th September 1909.]

From the Accountant-General, dated 6th October 1909, No. B.K.-6-1/8915.

The Accountant-General reports that the payments made to the Civil Orphan Asylum, Madras, during the current official year, on account of the Waltair Orphanage, have amounted to Rs. 90 against the balance of the Waltair Orphanage Fund of Rs. 34-7-2 on the 31st March 1909.

2. The Waltair Orphanage Fund has therefore been entirely used up. The separate account maintained by the Accountant-General under G.O., No. 489, Educational, dated 12th June 1895, may therefore be closed and the Accountant-General's annual balance sheet of the fund may be dispensed with.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Deputy Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Deputy Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, but only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
