G.O., No. 94, Educational, dated 16th February 1906.

ABSTRACT.—Requesting the Director of Public Instruction to grant recognition to the high school classes proposed to be opened in the American Baptist Mission School, Kurnool.

II

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. A. G. BOURNE, D.Sc., F.R.S., C.I.E., Director of Public Instruction, Madras.

To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.

Dated—the 17th August 1908.

No.—Ref. on Cur. 3071.

The Coles' Memorial High School, Kurnool, under the management of the American Baptist Mission was recognised under the Madras Educational Rules in the year 1906. In the course of the correspondence that preceded the order of recognition, the management were warned that they would be expected to limit recruitment as far as practicable to the Native Christian community and would be called on to show to the satisfaction of the department why it was impossible to maintain this policy. This warning was based on the substance of paragraph 3 of G.O., No. 94, Educational, dated 16th February 1906, in which the Government stated their reasons for requesting the Director to recognise the school.

2. At the present time, the Christians in the school constitute only about 25 per cent. of the total strength. The correspondent, whose attention has been drawn to the previous correspondence on this point, urges that "the fact that the Christians are in a minority does not alter the fact that the school exists mainly for them". This rejoinder in no way meets the objection that the management are not, so far as can be seen, making any effort to carry out what Government understood to be their declared policy at the time when the school obtained recognition, the limitation of recruitment to the Native Christian community. Since the recognition of the mission school, there has been a gradual decline in the strength of the three highest forms of the municipal school. It is true that there has been an increase in the total number of pupils receiving secondary education in the town but the important question is whether the bulk of the non-Christian pupils who are now studying in the mission school should not now be in the municipal high school, which is admittedly efficient but requires a far larger fee income than it can at present secure, if the necessary improvements in staff and accommodation are to be effected without imposing an undue burden on public funds. A large section of the Kurnool public require and ought to have an efficient non-sectarian school. In order to ensure this with a minimum of expenditure from public funds, it seems to me essential that the right of Government to impose a limit on the number of non-Christians admitted into the mission school should now be established. As a tentative measure, I would propose a 25 per cent. limit. In paragraph 5 of G.O., No. 94, Educational, dated 16th February 1906, I was asked by Government to watch carefully further developments and to administer or to suggest appropriate remedies should symptoms of unfair competition become apparent." I have no complaints that the competition is actually unfair, but feel it to be necessary to report developments which in my opinion were not contemplated by Government at the time of the school's recognition.

III

Memorandum No. 1838-1, Educational, dated 10th September 1908.

In paragraph 4 of the memorial from the Rev. W. L. Ferguson, dated 19th January 1906, printed on pages 11 and 12 of G.O., No. 94, Educational, dated 16th February 1906, it was stated that one-third of the pupils in the high school department of the mission school were Christian boys. The Director of Public Instruction is requested to report the total attendance in the mission school, and in the municipal high school since January 1906, and the number of Christian and non-Christian boys in each. He is also requested to state what proportion of the pupils in the mission school has been drawn from district centres as apart from town residents, and also whether any pupils have gone from the municipal school to the high school.

2. The Director of Public Instruction is also requested to report what capital has been actually expended by the mission on improved accommodation with reference to paragraph 11 of the memorial of the 19th January 1906. It was then stated that the mission contemplated spending Rs. 30,000 on this account.

Asst. Secretary to Government.

Letter—from Rev. W. A. STANTON, M.A., Manager, Coles' Memorial High School, Kurnool.

To—the Collector of Kurnool.

Dated—the 24th November 1908.

No.—20.

With reference to your letter of 19th November 1908 asking for certain information concerning the high school, I have the honour to enclose herewith a statement giving the desired information which I trust will be found satisfactory. It will be seen from this that the net cost of the school for 1907-1908 was in round numbers Rs. 3,000. The cost of the boarding department was Rs. 1,200, making a total net cost of Rs. 4,200. All of this, with the exception of a grant of Rs. 125 from Government, was met from mission funds. This Rs. 125 also will not hereafter be paid so that the total expense of the school must be met from the mission. When the high school was opened we hoped to be able to maintain it without any aid from Government and so stated in our memorial to Government asking for recognition. With the introduction of the new Educational Rules, however, the cost of higher education has been greatly increased, the requirements of the department, both as to staff and equipment, have been raised in every respect, and the cost of maintaining a high school is vastly greater than in the olden times. On representing this new situation to the Director of Public Instruction and pointing out the very greatly increased expenditure laid upon the mission to meet the new requirements and asking if aid might not be given us under these circumstances, he replied in his Dis. No. 245, dated 10th January 1908, which is herewith enclosed, that inasmuch as we had not asked for aid in the beginning, we should not receive at all. And furthermore that even the Rs. 250 which our lower secondary school has been receiving from Government would hereafter be discontinued as the school was now amalgamated with the high school. I submit that this seems a rather hard ruling. The school is doing a legitimate educational work and to that extent is co-operating with Government. The mission has erected a magnificent building and equipped it on the most modern lines at a cost of nearly Rs. 40,000 and for this has not sought or asked for any aid whatever from Government. It is prepared to continue to spend large sums on the development of the school, and even though Government aid us to the extent of half the net cost of the school as provided under the new rules, the mission would still have to expend about Rs. 2,000 per annum on the upkeep of the school. An American Principal is also to be sent out by our Board to devote his whole time and attention to the school and his salary would be met by the mission. In view, therefore, of the large sum of money which the mission has already put in the school and the large expenditure which it will continually undergo to maintain the school in a high state of efficiency, it would seem only fair that Government should aid us, at least to some extent, in the work of education which we are carrying on.

Proceedings of the Director of Public Instruction, Dis. No. 245 of 1908, dated 10th January 1908.

Read—the following paper :—

Endorsement of the Inspector of Schools, II Circle, Ref. No. 250-Kr., dated 24th November 1907.

From G.O., No. 94, Educational, dated 16th February 1906, referred to in the Inspector's endorsement read above, it will be seen that Government were assured that the mission were not asking for any financial aid on behalf of the school and that they were prepared to spend the necessary amount from their own resources for the improvement of the school. Accordingly the Director does not consider that the school should be aided under chapter IV of the Grant-in-aid Code, and the Inspector is requested to be good enough to inform the correspondent accordingly.

2. As the American Baptist Mission Lower Secondary School, Kurnool, which was included in the list of schools to be aided during the current triennium published with Proceedings, Dis. No. 137, dated 7th January 1907, is now part of the Coles' Memorial High School, the allotted grant has been reduced in the list of schools to be aided in the second year of the triennium and will be withheld altogether from the beginning of the year 1908-1909.

Dis. No. 11-Kr., dated 25th January 1908.

Communicated to the correspondent, Coles' Memorial High School, Kurnool, with reference to his No. 117, dated 11th October 1907.

G. V. SUBBARAYADU,
Ag. Inspector of Schools, II Circle.

Endorsement of the Director of Public Instruction, dated 6th December 1908.

[Mission High School, Kurnool.]

In considering such questions I start with the assumption that there are too many high schools and that we could make them better if there were fewer. It has been agreed that we should aim at making them self-supporting. The municipal school at Kurnool could only hope to be so if it stood alone. There is a very pronounced demand at Kurnool for an unsectarian school so the mission school must be regarded as the extra one. I refused to allow it to be established in the first instance—the Government overruled my decision—I still remain unconvinced as to the wisdom of this course. I did not see the "Notes" on G.O., No. 94, Educational, dated 16th February 1906; it would be well to look at these; the papers discuss the whole question. I think it was clear that the management urged their willingness to do without grant as a reason for recognition. On various occasions I have been impressed with the fact that this management rather freely considers that the end justifies the means. I should I regret to say always verify their statements before accepting them. Just now they say there is no rivalry between them and the municipal school, but I have complaints from the other side. Please see my letter No. 3071/8, dated 17th August 1898, based upon such complaints and still under the consideration of Government. On one occasion after Mr. Stanton had informed us that certain boys were paying full fees I was told that they were paying them on such easy terms as to attract boys who might otherwise have gone to the municipal school. The fact that even now only 20 per cent. of the pupils are Christians is not in the least surprising but it does not look as though much effort had been made to carry out the promise made when seeking recognition to confine recruitment as far as practicable to Christians.

The American Baptist Mission spends, so far as I can make out, more on secondary education than on elementary (this is total expenditure not net).
