G.O., Nos. 527, 528, Educational, dated 21st September 1909.

ABSTRACT.—Addressing the Government of India on the subject of delegating to the Director of Public Instruction the power now vested in this Government of granting certain concessions to teachers and to students not already in Government service who are selected to undergo a course of training in a school, college or other institution.

III

Letter—from H. G. STOKES, Esq., Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Education).

To—the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.

Dated—Simla, the 30th October 1909.

No.—934.

In reply to your letter No. 528, dated the 21st September 1909, I am directed to say that the Government of India accept the proposal of the Governor in Council that the powers now vested in local Governments, by rule 2 to article 57 of the Civil Service Regulations and articles 160-A, 203-A, 411 and 1138-A, as amended by the 423rd list of corrections, dated the 15th February 1909, to grant certain concessions to teachers and to students who are selected to undergo a course of training in a school, college or other institution, should be delegated to the Director of Public Instruction.

Order—No. 616, Educational, dated 22nd November 1909.

The Governor in Council is pleased, with the previous sanction of the Government of India, to delegate to the Director of Public Instruction the powers now vested in the local Government, by rule 2 to article 57 of the Civil Service Regulations and articles 160-A, 203-A, 411 and 1138-A, as amended by the 423rd list of corrections, dated the 15th February 1909, to grant certain concessions to teachers and to students who are selected to undergo a course of training in a school, college or other institution.

2. Rules 122 and 123 of the Madras Educational rules will now be amended as shown below :—

Salaries, etc., and travelling allowance of teachers under training.

“The salaries and travelling allowances of teachers employed in schools under public management who are selected to undergo training (including students selected with a view to employment in such schools) shall be settled by the Director of Public Instruction, the President of the Local Board or the Chairman of the Municipal Council, as the case may be. The Director may also at his discretion decide in the case of teachers in Government schools whether the time thus spent in training shall count as service qualifying for increments of pay, for leave and for pension. Private students shall be allowed travelling allowance from public funds for a single journey on joining the institutions in accordance with the following rules :—

“(i) Collegiate and secondary grade students shall be treated as third-class officers under article 1002 of the Civil Service Regulations drawing less than Rs. 50, and shall receive travelling allowance as for journeys on transfer.

“(ii) Elementary grade students shall be treated as fourth-class officers, not ministerial or menial, and shall receive travelling allowance as for journeys on transfer.

“(iii) The station from which travelling allowance is admissible to students of any grade shall be the school which they leave for the course of training or, in the case of those who are not employed in a school, their place of residence as shown in their application for admission.

“(iv) The allowances shall be drawn in consolidated bills by the Principals in the case of training colleges, and by the Headmaster or Headmistress in the case of training schools, the bills in the case of training schools being countersigned by the Inspector of European and Training Schools or by the Inspectress of the Circle.”

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

- (a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.
- (b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.
- (b¹) For rules regarding printing of notes, see the rules in G.O., No. 1220, Public, dated 30th November 1900.
- (c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.
- (d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.
- (e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

- (a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Deputy Registrar with a remark to that effect.
- (b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Deputy Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.
- (c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.
- (d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.
- (e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, but only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
